

Passover in a difficult time

11 April 2020

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My sons and daughters, you live in a time that confronts you with great problems so that I do not limit Myself to merely admonishing you or to giving you hope and courage. I speak to you out of My Holy Seriousness which, if you allow it, will not only touch you in your inner being, but will shake you awake.

The circumstances that are restricting you at the moment and causing many of you to fear and suffer in a variety of ways have startled many of you outwardly. But that is too little, especially as it will not take long until a majority of My human children will go over to the daily routine after the slow fading away of this first great disaster. They, and with them the generality of those who let themselves go and follow the spirit of the times, I address with this first part of My revelation.

I remind all of you of the meaning of My Word "I Am who I Am":

I Am all, I have brought My creation into being and I sustain it; there is no power like Mine and I Am Love! Nothing happens outside My Law and nothing happens without My Will!

Even if often in the history of mankind the impression arose that I do not exist because otherwise I would intervene, be nevertheless assured: I have not lost control for a moment or turned away, but My Law has acted and reacted with intent. Your unbelief and your lack of understanding are the reason why insecurities and fears arise in you and you have to recognize more and more often how your human work falls into ruins. Because it is nothing other than what you have put into the world for many centuries under disregard of My love commandment: work of man, carrying the core of unkindness in it and therefore is separated out as unfruitful when the reaper starts with the harvest.

You cannot make excuses for not knowing about causality, the relationship between a cause and its effect. You only need to look into nature or use the insights of the various branches of your science or philosophy to admit that nothing "just like that" comes into the world out of the blue or happens in the world. More simply, you use your mind to understand.

As Jesus of Nazareth, I proclaimed and exemplified a teaching that can be understood and practiced by all people. An important part of My teachings was dedicated to the law of sowing and reaping, without which knowledge everything that happens to you is regarded as coincidence. It is not worthwhile to think about the possible background of what in your eyes is a random event. It just happened. And if you try it occasionally, you will not find the answers, because your limited consciousness does not allow for recognition. Why are you not accustomed to assigning a cause to every event? By whom have you had your consciousness narrowed and your conscience silenced?

My commandment of love for God and neighbor stood and stands against these temptations and seductions. Love is the power overcoming all evil. This power lives in you and has patiently waited for you to call upon it because it wants to serve you as a help of knowledge and support you in your fight against your faults and weaknesses. But often enough it is called upon because man wants to be spared the fruits of his own bad seed, and not because he has decided to take the path of self-knowledge, repentance and reparation and to ask Me to be at his side.

I Am Mercy and Love, and not one prayer is ever ignored. Whether it is answered in the sense of the prayer, depends on various factors; not least on whether there is still a process of learning or removing, without which mankind as a whole and also the individual cannot take the next step of development. My law is incorruptible, and the admission of effects is always within the law.

This knowledge has been withheld from the same as many other things, so that you are now faced with a mountain of problems, questioning and often fearful and desperate without the proper answers. But praying alone, My beloved ones, is then no universal remedy before that self-knowledge and an about-turn of 180 degrees are introduced.

No prayer overrules My law. When I draw near to a praying child in love, take him to My heart and fulfil his request, this always happens within the framework of My eternal laws, no matter whether the praying person is a small or a large sinner. The answer to prayer is therefore never subject to any arbitrary act of giving to one person and refusing to another. Only those who accuse Me of human behavior, can think thus.

What do you think are the conditions that must be met if the requested is to come true? If My mercy is to be effective, which does not weigh up and only balances good and evil against each other? Does not the honesty of the prayerful person apply, who recognizes his own wrong behavior and asks for forgiveness in the consciousness of his more or less great guilt? And who is willing to put an immediate end to his wrong thinking and acting?

Consider from these points of view the prayers that have been said since time immemorial, and you will very often see their dishonesty and unwillingness to leave the path they have chosen. Your present situation offers a good opportunity for the recognition of this truth.

The law of cause and effect is an indispensable part of My Divine legislation and therefore of My love. It ensures that all My children again find their way back to Me, so also those who are the originators of the case and therefore the cause for the formation of the earthly creation and have led you into great trouble. But this was only possible for them because you did not give a clear "no" to their advertising. For two thousand years you have known about the only effective remedy against all egoistic and unclean things: the implementation of My commandment of love. And still a large part of you including those who see themselves through their name as My followers, has decided not to make use of this power.

As long as there are people on earth, the struggle for each soul will last. The instrument of darkness is deception, lies and seduction, My instrument is the law of sowing and reaping. It is the guarantor that My work of redemption, which I initiated on Golgotha, will be brought to a good end. Nothing and no-one can prevent Me from it. The end of darkness is sealed, and also its ascent into light cannot be stopped by anything. When this will be, is alone in My hands. My time is not your time.

The opposing forces are still intransigent and are fighting with all means at their disposal to postpone this process. Many of My human children have been - and still are - at their service, consciously or unconsciously, by getting involved in a dangerous game. By disregarding My commandment of love, the debit side of their account grew more and more. You can put it another way: The barrel has begun to overflow - not because My patience is over, but because the barrel is full!

Again and again many people look at the past and also the future without including the law of sowing and reaping in their considerations. This is pure ignorance, leads to completely wrong conclusions and to solutions that can only superficially be described as ways out. They never bring permanent relief or improvement, on the contrary. Because as a rule they do not orient themselves through My love-commandment and so through unlawful action produce a new, bad seed, whose harvest can already be predicted.

Pay attention to this aspect when your leaders, from whatever area of your life, act as "saviors" and "problem solvers". Whoever does not know the law of cause and effect and therefore does not take it into account in his decisions, will get more and more into the mire together with all those who agree with him. At the same time, he and those who knowingly and unknowingly follow him, are causing the barrel to overflow and spill over.

In positive terms, this means that the transformation process has begun.

If you learn to ask about the causes of what is happening in your personal life or in the world, it will no longer be so easy for the opposing forces to lead you on the wrong track. One of these is to make you believe that your present situation - caused by a so-called pandemic - has been sent to humanity to pause, reflect and come to knowledge. People will not do this, apart from some individuals.

Do I have to send you something to make you think or to make you understand? An awakened spirit among My children once described as "fate"-sal rightly be called "Power". I am not the sender of your distress and suffering. I Am the One who wants to heal you and will heal you at a time that you yourselves determine. The task of rethinking is undeniable in your present situation and in everything that lies ahead of you. But again the same error of thinking is made, due to your ignorance and your incomprehension:

No evil comes to you merely as a kind of "educational measure", to finally make you think. Especially not from Me. No and again no! That is never the reason why something heavy enters your life. If you think like that, you could also consider any war as necessary, because without it no new beginning would be possible. Such a view, My sons and daughters, leads you past the solution and does not direct your view into the necessary depth.

All suffering represents the harvest of a previously sown wrongdoing that was not recognized, repented of, put right and made amends for. In their "baggage" this harvest also brings with it the chances for the examination of conscience - which, however, will be practiced by very few - but to limit it to that and not to see it as the result of a serious disregard of My laws, is a fatal mistake.

Also the formulation "God allows this" does not hit the mark. Why should I not allow what shows itself as an effect on a behavior for which you have decided of free will? I will never interfere with the free will of a creature. But I will again and again point out to you that every action leaves traces - light or dark -, which are faultlessly assigned to the causer. You should change the dark traces in time with My love into light because otherwise you will catch up with what you have sown on your way in lack of love.

On a completely wrong path of their search for explanations are those who assume that the powers of darkness have sent distress and plagues. That would be fine, there seems to be no need for self-reflection: The culprit has been found. No, My beloved children, do not make it too easy for yourselves. It is just such superficial thinking that has brought you the difficulties you are now facing.

The opposing forces, like you, have free will. If they want to make a difference on earth, they need helpers, ignorant, gullible, fickle, easily influenceable people. Here is your playing field, here you search and find your team mates. Without the right players, they would be helpless and would have to stop their evil activities.

Just as it is your "good right" to show the opposing forces through your life that love is the stronger force, so it is their "good right" to convince you of the opposite with all cunning and malice. You can cancel their attempts at any time. How this can be done, I have shown you through My life as Jesus of Nazareth. But if you follow their instructions, then you transgress My law, and it is your harvest that will be brought in sometime.

It is your scale in which more and more heavy things are accumulated. It is your jug that goes to the well until it breaks. That they are the seducers doesn't change the fact that you have to pay for what you have been seduced to do.

And tests, allegedly sent by Me, certainly do not represent the times lying ahead of you. Do I have to test you? Don't I know about the smallest sensation in each one of you? I Am the life in you. I am closer to you than your arms and legs.

You may consider the tasks you encounter on your way back to Me as tests if you want to learn more about yourself; but they have not come into your life through Me. If they present themselves as tests for you, then follow this impulse. Do not only think and talk about it, but apply your trust in Me, your willingness, your courage, your self-knowledge acquired so far and your love for Me and your neighbor - the standard that I have given you through My life.

What is your own assessment? Are there points that could be improved? Then decide, come to Me in your heart and ask Me to help you with your Inner Work. Then all events as tests had their meaning and fulfilled their purpose and brought you a long way forward on your way. Otherwise they have exactly the opposite effect: that you take Me for their sender and do not even consider that these are effects of causes that man himself has put into the world.

*

My sons and daughters, this was a stock-taking of your situation given to you by My earnestness. I have consciously directed your attention to the law of sowing and reaping. Because it is the pivotal point for understanding and a resulting decision, it is not shown at all or only very blurred. This will prevent you from getting to the very heart of the solution, which is to change your life. A look at the world situation, which is becoming more and more acute, proves that it is not possible without recognizing and correcting mistakes made before.

Or do you think that more prayers without rigorous repentance will change the current plight? Or that your train, which is rolling into the bottomless pit, will be stopped by fine words and declarations of intent? But who should initiate this conversion? And by what means? Shouldn't there first be a decisive change in the thinking of those responsible, but also in the thinking of each individual? When you pray, pray that insight will spread and that not only willingness, but also action will follow, to take the path of love for God and neighbor.

Seen from this point of view, the most effective prayer consists in the fulfillment of My commandments. Words are not even necessary. They rise in you of their own accord as feelings of gratitude.

What causes you can or are willing to recognize in detail is a question of consciousness. Are you being told the truth or are you being manipulated in a sophisticated way? Is one concerned about your well-being, or are own, opaque interests in the foreground? Where are your interests? Are they dictated by fear, which is an excellent disguise for a positive quality? Your insight is needed, and insight develops as you progress along the way as you live love in your daily lives. If this happens only hesitantly or conditionally, there is always the danger that your good will is abused. Therefore, My beloved ones, be vigilant.

Nor forget the word of your Scripture: "Sin no more, lest any harm come to you." It doesn't get much clearer than that. How can we ignore or overlook this admonition, which clearly points to a violation of the commandment of love - a sin - as the cause?

It's not easy to be brave in your time. Your ship is caught in a severe storm. And because My love is anxious for your welfare and wants to protect you, on the one hand emphatic admonitions and clear signals are needed, on the other hand however also My assurance that I am at your side.

You know it is never My intention to instill fear. This is what others do who want to move you to let go of My hand or not to take hold of it at all, so that you go in the direction they desire. My intention is only to shake up those of you who have not yet recognized the signs of the times.

Beyond this, I call out to those who are already walking at My Hand: "Do not be distracted! Do not let yourselves be disturbed!" It is the declared aim of the darkness, which has long been working towards the chaos of the coming time, to cause all to sway and fall. It will succeed with people who do not believe in Me and therefore do not live with Me but who cultivate their ego and try to achieve their worldly happiness according to their ideas. But also those who know Me but are not established in Me, run the risk to be pushed off their way.

If your incarnation has been prepared with the help of your guardian spirit, your soul has known what it is getting into. It knew that it would be a difficult time for itself as well as for all people. It has also understood that at it's birth, it enters the domain of darkness. And yet it dared to take this step because it saw in the learning tasks a chance to develop in the spirit of love. The chance still exists. In times that are not so easy, it is even greater, because the challenges are different and the opportunities to make spiritual progress, multiply.

Even though the dark clouds have come up, My child, do not let this be a cause for sadness or concern. My power is not to be broken, My will is not to be subverted, and My love cannot be diminished by a whit. It may be that there will be some cutbacks in your life as well. But if you stay close to Me: Who can harm you when I have laid My Hand on you? The only one who can weaken you is yourself, and that is when you allow the darkness to penetrate your mind and try to frighten you.

If you feel such a temptation, come to Me in no time. Nestle in My Arms, tell Me of your worries and allow My Fatherly Love to fill your inner being. All heaviness will evaporate and you will again be able to recognize the light with which I banish the dark on your way. In this way you yourself will finally become the light, which I desire, and which your soul desires to be for a long time already: light in a lightless time to also illuminate the ways of those who urgently need your consolation, support and strengthening through you.

Whenever you do this and thus forge the bond of our love ever more firmly, remember the word that defines your Passover: ARISE.

You celebrate My resurrection, with which I have cleared the way for all souls and people. But also celebrate your own resurrection when you have decided to follow My example as Jesus of Nazareth.

Amen
