

All My love is for your spiritual growth

13 December 2019

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My sons and daughters! Although you are children of My Love because you have come out of Me, I will put the emphasis of My revelation today on making you aware that you are more than what is commonly associated with the term 'children':

You are mighty and powerful creatures of the heavens, which I have endowed with great parts of My qualities, with a wealth of talents and endowments, with abilities still unimaginable to you. You are of a supernatural radiant beauty and have an unparalleled "heavenly competence". You have a freedom of your own which is not subject to restrictions because it is founded in love and thus respects the laws of love. This brings with it a creative act of personal responsibility, which is continuously carried out with joy, gratitude and humility.

Each one of you is that and much more.

You are still far from feeling this yourselves and acting accordingly; and seeing yourselves as I see you. And yet it would already be possible for you to set in motion much more than you think possible in your ignorance and your view of man's sinfulness and inadequacy.

My incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth had the sole purpose of creating the conditions for all who once left the heavens to return to their true greatness, and return home. Which means that they recognize the need for - their - soul-growth and decide to consciously initiate this process with Me.

My earthly mission began with My birth as man, which you celebrate these days as Christmas; My redemption at Golgotha, which you remember at Easter, ended it, successfully.

The gates of heaven, figuratively speaking, were open again. Every soul that was of good will, after appropriate inner and outer conversion, could now begin its way home to Me on the basis of the Love Commandment that I had taught and exemplified, relying on My promise that it would be received again by Me with open arms as the "prodigal son" or the "prodigal daughter". And this without any reservations or "after-effects".

Since then the action of homebound guidance was in process and although the opposing forces still do everything they can to hinder the return home of My sons and daughters - they cannot make a return permanently impossible - more and more of them find themselves on the way to Me and finally back to My Heart, into their eternal homeland. It is not easy to follow the path that leads home and to walk it consistently, step by step. Without My strengthening power, which I have put as the so-called Christ-spark into every soul and every person, nobody would reach his goal anyway. The souls in the non-heavenly realms and humanity had moved too far away from the center of My love. The powers of darkness were and still are far underestimated, especially since their real existence, their intention and their approach are almost unknown. And it requires a definite free-will decision - which is made out of love for Me - to gradually release yourselves from the satanic fetters, which are of an energetic nature and are again and again laid on you anew, mostly without you noticing this.

Therefore I gave you at all times - strengthened in the last decades - help upon help, which on the one hand are to remind you who you are in truth and where your goal lies, and on the other hand encourages and strengthens the longing, but also very concretely supports and instructs. They were and are gifts from heaven.

*

In your pre-Christmas time, when My Birth is commemorated with a lot of glamour, it makes sense to draw a parallel between the gifts you receive from your loved ones and friends at Christmas and those who come out of My love. As a rule, you'll find what you're looking for, lovingly wrapped on the gift table or under the Christmas tree. To leave something unwrapped would not occur to any of you; even less to simply put it aside when unwrapped, not occupying yourself with it.

It is not difficult to see what I want to show you with this picture. Have you unpacked My Gifts of Love that I have been pouring out on you for many, many years with a fullness that has never been the case before? What do you understand by unpacking? To read or hear My Word can certainly be seen as unpacking. And then?

Have you put them aside like something for which you are grateful, which also seems quite interesting, but which doesn't necessarily encourage you to use them? Do My Gifts lie somewhere - unnoticed and half forgotten? Did they perhaps serve only to satisfy your intellect, to increase the treasure of your knowledge? Or to remind you in shared hours how much the heart rejoices when your God and Father speak? What sense should this have? With so much accumulated information, your soul will not be able to enter the next rung of its ladder to heaven. Acquired knowledge, which has not been implemented in the right measure, i.e. in the sense of love, weighs so heavily that the next rung to be climbed, will break under the weight of head-knowledge.<sup>(1)</sup>

Or have you been more closely occupied with My gifts, recognized their value, exchanged ideas about where and how you succeeded in implementing them? Have you begun to work with this precious treasure to multiply and produce good fruit? For as precious as My gifts are, they do not want to be kept in a safe. Its incomparable content only then becomes obvious and a blessing for you and the world when it is spread out like a seed that I water and let mature.

When you have tried to fulfil My commandments and to translate My explanations into an ever deeper understanding, much has already been done in you. Then you are on the best way to be light in this difficult time with a continuous spiritual growth taking place in you with My support.

There is a guideline that you can - if you wish - apply to yourself in order to recognize the degree of your inner maturity that has already been reached. And the more honest you are, the more you will be able to benefit from such contemplation. Then there can be joy at the fact that many things have already changed for the better; or also a relief at not being affected by this or that in your everyday life to the same extent as it was in the past. If this is so, then your inner work with Me has borne fruit.

But there can also be a certain sadness when you have to realize that there are some things that could be a thing of the past with a more serious decision and good will. Then how do you act? Do you then remember My gift and My promise to free you with a small portion of work on your part - and a much larger portion on My part - from what still burdens you? Do not be seduced into resignation by insights that may make your heart heavy! But above all, do not let yourselves be deterred from coming again and again to Me in your inner being!

An examination of conscience, for example at the end of a day, serves more to look at your behaviour from the point of view of "good - not quite so good - not good at all". But it will only bring you a profit if you draw the right conclusions from the knowledge and set the course for a different action in the future, a right action in the sense of love. The many situations that will be sent to you over the coming days and weeks, will give you ample opportunity to practice with this goal in mind.

An inventory of your soul-growth, on the other hand, should help you to get a picture of where you stand. It can be obstructive to dangerous, to indulge in a fallacy about one's own development and, for example, to believe that by reading spiritual literature, observing church-law regulations and commandments, fulfilling traditional exercises and refraining from bad actions, one has created a sufficient basis for the following, constructive steps on the later, ethereal level.

My commandment is not "Thou shalt do no evil", but "Make earnest efforts to become love again". The difference is profound.

To what extent you have already succeeded in My "Love - and nothing else", you can judge for yourself when you see what it means to follow Me - if you have decided to take such a step.

Then some things in your life have already changed, because you have not only unpacked My gifts, but have begun to test them successfully for their "suitability for everyday use":

Then worries about the future are largely a thing of the past. Doubts about Me and My Justice no longer exist, because you have understood that every event is only one link in an eternal chain, in the coming into being of which - as far as you are concerned - you yourself were involved. Being able to forgive and being able to ask for forgiveness may not be easy for you every now and then, but you know its necessity and ask Me to help you to do so. the so-called death has lost its horrors for you because you know that you are on your way to Me. Your willingness to question your thinking, speaking and doing has become a matter of course for you, because you have understood how necessary it is to recognize yourself in order to build up the desired change as the next step. You have already recognized a part of the bonds that do not yet let you be as free inside and out as you would like yourself to be, and you have gone about loosening these bonds with My help. You are happy that your empathy and intuition have grown. You look deeper and deeper into your neighbour and can see his honest intention and need for help as well as attempts to deceive you with beautiful words or to harm you. You know about the possibility of mutual, inner communication with Me, which opens up more and more as your love for Me grows. You learn to recognize the various pseudo-religious seductions better and better and to separate the wheat from the chaff.

Can you endorse this - even if at the moment not yet to the full extent, but with the deep desire to achieve it - for yourself? Then you are no longer only on the way to Me according to the word. Then you are already using My gift full of joy and with childlike devotion.

*

All this and more comes about over time - almost as if by itself - as a result of a decision to go with honest effort the way that I went two thousand years ago through My example as Jesus of Nazareth for all souls and people. But it would be wrong to assume that in the course of this soul-development process, something completely new is learned. Although something is learnt, it would be more correct to speak of a "revival", of a "bringing to light" of abilities that you have had inside you for ages and that are just waiting to be practiced and applied again.

With every step you take in My footsteps, you open up in yourself what I have laid in you for ages: your spiritual potential, the greatness of which you know as little of as the infinite possibilities which result from a profoundly intimate love-relationship with Me. Whereby "following in My footsteps" means a life in the sense of love for God and neighbour, which applies equally to all people and souls.

This approach is fundamentally different from that which is commonly held, which has been introduced to you, which many of you do not think about, and which is as follows:

That I, independently of heaven and angels, have brought material creation into being and created man. He must now develop in a single life through the observance of My alleged prohibitions and the observance of My commandments to such an extent that his soul becomes ripe for entry into heaven, at the human bodily death. And this more or less from the get-go, out of nowhere and perhaps even under the most adverse living conditions. And what if he does not manage to purify himself and lighten his soul to such an extent that it has reached the high vibration of the heavens, which - according to the law of attraction - is the prerequisite for a successful homecoming? What then? The opinions of the scribes, who represent the different worldviews and ideologies, broadly, greatly, differs on this point.

Which of the many versions do you believe in? The one you grew up with? And what if you had grown up in different circumstances, in a different culture, a different religion or with a different way of thinking? Your heart-logic is in demand! When you, My beloved, realize that you are creatures with divine traits who are on the way to regain those traits - which were buried and are still partially buried - then you put your senses and aspirations on a completely new foundation. Then you see yourself in the situation of a child who knows that he or she cannot do as much as an adult, but who does not have feelings of inferiority because of it and who does not consider himself or herself to be inferior or imperfect.

On the contrary, it rejoices in all that it learns and applies what it has learned. After all, it wants to grow big and strong.

And again I draw a parallel, this time between the child and the adult being that you are. Have you ever thought about the fact that what you have already learned in your life on earth, what you have already opened up in yourself again, is the pound with which you should grow? Which in a figurative sense means to make something out of it, to use it, to multiply it. From a spiritual point of view, these are the traits that you have already allowed to strengthen in you from the perspective of learning to love, of "living again". They have already helped you to an expanded consciousness and have thus become part of your strengthened soul, which gains in radiance with each further application.

They are – comparable to - the qualities of which a child is proud when and because he or she voluntarily and joyfully follows the natural path of adulthood. Each of My human children is in principle in the same situation, because each has already developed something according to his will and possibilities. Therefore, there is no reason to feel small, unworthy, incapable and much more and to put oneself in a situation that is more hesitant and wait-and-see than active and striving forward.

If you, My beloved child above all, not only read My Word or not only hear it, but have begun to change your life - even if it is in small first steps - then you have begun to take up your divine inheritance. Then, if this is your wish, I will forever free the source in you, which at the moment cannot bubble as your soul desires. Then you are in the process of developing love more and more within yourself and thus to illuminate areas of your inner being even more.

Are you aware of this fact?

*

What does this knowledge mean to you now? That I ask you to get out of the passive role of being "just a supplicant" and not only to become aware that there are divine abilities and powers in you, but also to say 'yes' to using My qualities already opened up in you.

I'll give you a picture for that, too. Every angel - and you are on your way to becoming one again - without asking, uses all his strength and energy to fulfill his task. It fully corresponds to him, i.e. to his abilities and possibilities. It is "as if tailored to him," and it is no coincidence that he is where he is and acts as he acts. Which, by the way, applies to each one of you.

Do you believe that an angel is asking Me to fulfil a task that is actually his task and one that he can fulfil? Do you think that your guardian angel must ask Me if he may protect you? He will do this in love and complete agreement with Me, with My Law, which corresponds to his nature, mentality, love for Me and for you. But he will not delegate anything to Me - or to an angel who has already developed a greater power of light than himself - which he cannot also do himself. Can you imagine acting like this? Or are you more like an independent child who still asks his father or mother to tie his shoes?

My sons and daughters, it is My great desire that you - in a figurative sense - take up your inheritance. Be aware that you carry My Divine powers in you and begin to grow with these powers. Do this in the sense of My love, even if you still do not always succeed perfectly. But do it.

A small example, of which there are many - and of which I will put more in your thoughts if you ask Me - will show you what I mean by this. And you will be astonished that some of the findings of your science will seamlessly coincide with My universal laws of creation.

Your quantum physicists have discovered that everything is connected and communicates with each other. This means that every sensation and every thought seeks and finds equal vibrating energies in all of creation, in all material and ethereal realms.

And I'm telling you: Everything lives, everything is in uninterrupted motion, everything reacts, everything resonates with forces of the same or similar frequency. Each being contributes to the fact that the overall picture of creation - similar to the pattern on a water surface - is constantly changing. This happens with every sensation, every thought, every word and every action, all of which are triggers on the energetic level. Because these realms are not visible to you, you get the impression that they either don't exist, or that they are located in another, completely encapsulated cosmos that has no influence on you, and that you don't participate in the nature of that cosmos.

A view cannot be more wrong than this.

*

I explain these connections to you in detail because I want to save you from falling into the trap of the false "Father-you do-that" mentality, which consists in leaving to Me also what you can manage yourselves. There are many things that we should and can work on together. To strive for your growth, comes only through testing and practicing and through collecting the experiences you have made; whereby I protect you from being harmed and give you all the help you need when you ask Me to be at your side. by which I mean the many steps I come towards you when you take only one step towards Me.

When I encourage you to begin to use the soul-powers for the good of your neighbour but also for yourselves, which you have already opened up in yourselves, I do not mean that you should act in your own will or according to your own ideas. I Am and remain the One who, as the only "Perpetual Movement of Creation" for everything you do, provides My Love-Energy. But if you use this energy, as far as you can, to act in the spirit of selfless and unconditional love, you will grow step by step into your task as co-creators of creation.

The changes for the better and good that you all hope for are not achieved through a more or less passive inner attitude that leaves everything to Me. It will then emerge in the desired form, if everyone contributes his part to it: You as human beings on matter as well as your heavenly brothers and sisters, who are continuously and boundlessly active on all levels.

Such a rethinking and acting not least benefits yourself; because every thought, which is put into practice with good will and My help, represents a building block, which promotes your spiritual growth, which lets you become strong, secure and free. That gets you out of the sluggishness and laziness into which you all too easily get. It makes you children of God who move and who proclaim the love and joy they experience through their radiance, through their life.

When and where else do you want to begin with your growing up, with your maturing into conscious sons and daughters of God, if not now and here, where the best conditions are given?

For example, when you pray for someone, your prayer-power is strengthened by putting all your emotions into the words you think or speak. Because emotions are so important, I will come back to this important aspect at a later time.

Try something different:

Praying for your neighbour is an act of selfless love, your selfless love! You may put into words what you want to say or ask, but it is only a kind of energetic bridge. Where are you going? To the recipient of your prayer, to Me and - what very few know or think about - to the Infinite Energy-Field of Selfless Love that permeates all of creation. You will come into contact with all similarly vibrating energies. This is the case with everything else, no matter what you think, speak and do, or what kind of energies, positive or negative, it is. Your physicists have gained their first insights into quanta.

If you now become gratefully aware of the love which you have already developed - redeveloped - through your efforts, and which is therefore already active in you, which accompanies you and helps you in various ways, and if you then send your love-power out of this awareness to your brother or sister, then this has a much stronger effect than "only" a prayer, which lacks your own share [energy/emotion]. You have thereby literally become "co-workers" in My vineyard.

An interaction with other energies of the same vibration takes place as an "encore", quite apart from that which comes from My heart for the benefit of the soul and the human being.

From this example you may recognize which possibilities - mostly still unknown and hidden - lie within you. It is a part of the divine potential that I always speak of when I remind you of your true greatness. It is so important for you to recognize this. Developing your talents and making them a blessing to all, is a wonderful task. You will fulfill it with ever greater joy as you see more and more of the good fruits of your work and feel the effects that they have in your environment, but also in yourselves.

To behave like this, i.e. to use the powers put into you by Me on one's own responsibility in the sense of love, is not an instruction to feel like God or to act like God. But it makes adult sons and daughters out of the children of My love.

This, My beloved, is My Christmas present to you. If you not only unwrap it, but bring its content freely into your life, its infinitely precious content, which comes from My Fatherly love, opens up.

Amen

<sup>(1)</sup> Jakob Lorber: "This is the highest wisdom, that you may become wise through living love. But all knowledge is useless without love! Therefore do not worry so much about much knowledge, but that you love much, love will give you what no knowledge can ever give you".
Great Gospel of John, Book 4, chapter 1