

You are looking for salvation in the wrong place

13 April 2021

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, when I called creation into being an inconceivably long "time" ago, I did so out of the desire to share My love with beings who came forth from Me - from My love. True love needs the exchange, the togetherness, the giving and taking, the feeling, the expression of deepest and most intimate feelings. It is based on the knowledge that there is a counterpart with whom one is most closely connected, with whom one is one. And it always draws new strength from the fact that this indescribable feeling of happiness - which is infinitely stronger in heaven - is experienced; experienced as a continuously bubbling source of new inspiration and constant growth.

To experience such love is a sensation that cannot be expressed in words. To have been created by this love, to live in it for all eternity, yes, even to carry this highest form of energy of the cosmos in yourself and even to be a part of this love-energy that overtaxes your human feeling and thinking. And nevertheless: You have, when you were still with me, not only made this experience - you have lived without beginning and without end in and with it.

You are love, My son, My daughter: love in an individual being like there is no second, and with a freedom given by Me, the extent of which you would marvel at incredulously, could you already recognize it now.

You are of Me, and so it will remain for all eternity!

I am not telling you this for the first time, and I am not repeating it for the first time. But because it is of such great importance for your life in matter that you not only know about it, but also live this knowledge, that is, express it in your everyday life, I come back to this point again and again and also place it in the center of My revelation this time.

And furthermore, it is of crucial importance for you to understand that the adversary has started right here with the aim of alienating My children from Me. This alienation is being carried to extremes in your present time by every conceivable means. By whom? Is this so difficult to recognize?

Hell needs comrades-in-arms, because only through them - thus indirectly - it can enforce its plans in matter. But don't think that this is a weak point for them. The opposite is the case: In this way it itself remains invisible and for the vast majority unrecognized in the background, whereby it benefits from the fact that a large part of the people is not convinced of its existence anyway and does not consider it possible that satanic forces permanently play into your world events. And those whom My and your adversary "sends into the race", understand very well the art of camouflage and deception....

Have you - and by this are meant first and foremost those who know your Scriptures - forgotten the word: "By their fruits you shall know them"? You should not interpret the term "false prophets" used in this context too narrowly. A false prophet can also be one who promises you progress and prosperity in defiance of My commandments. And what are the fruits of those to whom you listen, to whom you have entrusted some of your own responsibility? Is it the effort of righteousness and honesty, the effort to implement My teaching? Then you have chosen well. In the other case, a few questions arise for those who have not yet let themselves get out of the habit of looking and thinking. They will not be so easily seduced into seeking salvation in the wrong place.

When I speak of "My children", this means the fallen beings as well as the faithful who have incarnated from the light in this difficult time in order to support Me and all good forces. For you it is only important that you are also addressed, because it is in your hand to set the course for your future in free will.

Is it not the most natural and self-evident thing in the world that lovers know about each other, that they trust and exchange? The darkness therefore saw the most urgent task in driving a wedge between Creator and creatures, in order to achieve thereby a deep and - in their eyes - a as durable and final division as possible.

Would you intend to interfere with, seriously disrupt, and even deface to the point of ignorance the relationship between two lovers - where would you start? Take a moment, if you will, for reflection. A self-acquired knowledge will always bring you greater benefit than a quick answer ...

- - -

The knowledge of the intimate Father-child relationship had to be removed from the hearts and minds of the people and replaced by a pseudo-knowledge. The "signpost to heaven" had to be twisted by a few degrees so that the path now lead past the goal. Trumpery and dazzle, colorfully and interestingly prepared, had to take the place of true values and necessary seriousness already early. All efforts of the Creator to enlighten His children had to be torpedoed. People were not allowed to get the idea to search or even to find. Vague memories that there must be more than the pursuit of worldly happiness, could be eliminated in most of them. And at the same time, they could be kept poor in spirit in this way, their gaze increasingly fixated on taking whatever distracting amusement and questionable pleasure was offered to them.

First, you were led astray for centuries by a changed teaching. This could succeed because you had no or hardly any possibilities to distinguish truth from untruth and error by external examination. Only a few were able to recognize the inherent truth. The overwhelming majority was also not willing to undergo this effort. Your scripture, which could have been a help for you, could only fulfill this task conditionally, because it also no longer contained My unadulterated Word.

When you finally had the freedom - because those who had incorporated Me in the delusion of their arrogance for their purposes, lost more and more power and influence - you were littered with the "comforts of life" so that you had no time left for a search and finding of My truth. You did not benefit from your freedom for a meaningful questioning of the really important things in life, which is really just letting go on a long leash.

Today the seduction has reached its peak, as well as the restrictions of the consciousness of My human children, which took place through devious and cooked-up methods and unnoticed by most.

Where all this was of no avail, there still remained a strengthening of fear; which was and is so easily possible with many because the knowledge that I live in man - thus also, since I created you, in you - was no longer spread and is completely missing today. I was banished to a distant heaven which cannot be identified any closer. And with it, almost none of My human children take Me into their everyday life anymore and make use of My love-power, which is available to them selflessly and unconditionally, uninterruptedly. And that in all areas of - your - daily life, with all questions which occupy you, with all tasks which life puts to you, with all difficulties which you meet.

The result: Because of the perceived helplessness, man resembles flotsam. If he finally does seek help, he rarely turns to Me. He mostly runs directly into the arms of those who are responsible for his situation, which they have created mostly intentionally, but also unintentionally; but in which he is not uninvolved, because he has tacitly, thoughtlessly and uncritically accepted or participated in many things. Ignorance has reached its climax when man believes the advice of those and implements their proposed solutions who have brought him into this predicament in the first place.

You are looking for salvation in the wrong place! And this not for the first time. My law stands above everything and is not to be leveraged out! You turn because of lacking depth of soul, caused by your ignorance, unbelief and fear, to "salvation bringers", who do not stand on the ground of the message proclaimed by Me as Jesus of Nazareth. Those who seek their happiness and salvation externally, will fail. Or, as it is said in your scripture: "For whoever wants to keep his life, will lose it" - which is understood by those who want to understand it.

From the point of view of the opposing forces, their plan has succeeded; at least the present situation on your earth presents itself so for them. Because, and also I tell you not for the first time: The barrel has begun to overflow! The times of milk and honey, which appeared and still appear to many as worthy of preservation despite their inner emptiness and whitewash, are over. Many seers and prophets have announced what is coming as "the time of tribulation". You don't believe it, at least the majority doesn't want to read or hear these words; even many of those who otherwise can't quote corresponding Bible passages fast enough.

But My and your opponent is still mistaken. He doesn't know the end of the story yet or doesn't want to believe it - yet.

*

Enlightenment is needed, My beloved ones, more than ever. Of course, the satanic forces also know this and use a proven antidote: fear. Look at your news and you will find in most of the contributions a fear-spreading undertone, which, if it is only taken up often enough without reflection, creeps into your subconscious and prevents many of you from still being able to see things with the necessary clarity.

Whoever is afraid, is no longer master of himself. Negative forces have literally "captured" him. The door to manipulation has opened, and quickly all good intentions are gone. What was previously affirmed, what was affirmed as important and right, melts away like snow in the sun. Anyone who is not careful, quickly becomes a chess piece that can be shifted back and forth at will.

I am not telling you anything that you do not already know. But in spite of your knowledge about it, you are endangered - because knowledge alone does not protect you from going into the fear-trap. I have already pointed out to you many times that the darkness proceeds with a subtlety that you will never see through. This also includes planning that extends over very long periods of time and is implemented in slices with a "salami tactic" so that you cannot see the connections. Too quickly, people get used to a new, changed situation, which soon becomes normal for them. The next, unnoticed seductive step or an imperceptible change of direction then builds on this.

How will you see through such an approach and confront it with a "no" if you do not put all your trust in Me and My Word?

I Am your Father and Mother and much more. I Am everything to you. Between Me and you or - so that it strengthens your personal feeling, your love - between Me and you there is a bond that can never be destroyed by anything and anyone. I tell you this because I want to finally transform the fear or still existing remnants of it in your heart into an unshakable trust. Even though it is a statement that may sound harsh in it's consequence, it contains the truth:

Fear and trust do not get along. You can't thrive on the same field.

This does not mean that no more feelings of this kind will or may approach you. But it is a question of whether you want to become more and more free of them. Whether you want to do the inner work, which consists in coming to Me immediately when the fog of despondency and trembling oppresses you. Whether you want to look more closely than before at what is presented to you through your media, even if you may have to summon up the courage to leave behind old-established thinking and habits that have become dear to you. And whether you are also ready to look into the depth of your feelings, even if you will perhaps discover something there that still wants to be processed and transformed.

Finally, it means: Do you want to become fully aware of the fact that you are children of My love, with all that this entails? And as a result, are you willing to accept your filiation to God and walk the path that will restore you to this love I spoke of at the beginning of My revelation?

My enlightenment also includes that I remind you again and again that you have entered the domain of darkness with your incarnation. Here on your earthly evil is running riot. If you had not received a "basic protection" through Me, it would hardly be possible for you to go through the first years of your life without major damage to your physical and soul. At the latest, however, when you begin to develop your own will, good forces - but also evil influences - are always at your side to move you in the direction they want: the good forces in a way that respects your free will, the evil ones with innumerable stratagems without regard for what is good for you.

Those who do not know about these things, become the pawns of the other side. In this way, your world has become a playing field and most people have become pawns. My love-teaching, given and exemplified by Jesus of Nazareth, should prevent this. If many people would participate by implementing My commandment in their everyday life, this would have been possible, like a domino effect. It has become - for now – different.

*

One possibility to grow more and more into your sonship with God is that you get a different picture of yourselves, your possibilities and tasks. For centuries, the image of man in relation to Me, his God, has been shaped - and still is with the vast majority - by the idea of the "great Creator up there" and "I as the little man down here". This, My sons and daughters, is not worthy of you. For even though I Am the universal, only Builder and Sustainer, it is by no means the case that I want to be looked at, addressed and worshipped in awe. What I desire, is your love.

Every creature is My child, and because all life comes forth from Me, it is not viable without Me. Yes, you would not be if I interrupted even for a fraction of a second the breathing of My creation with My eternal stream of love. In this respect, I Am the Alpha and Omega. However, this does not mean that the relationship between Me and you is one of dependence as your world knows it. I have created beings who, although not equal to Me, are similar to Me, and who have abilities that cannot be imparted to you because of their scope, complexity, and almost infinite possibilities to apply them.

As the most beautiful and powerful side of their being, I have placed My love in each of My children. And now answer a question for yourselves: As parents, do you desire that your children praise you, sing hosannas to you, and kneel to express their respect for you - or that they love you? If your answer is honest, then you also know what My children can do to please Me ... What you can do to make Me a friend.

If you can come to terms with this image, which will be new for one or the other of you, then try to change something in your dialogue with Me. Over centuries, the attitude has grown to ask Me for assistance, strength, support and much more from the situation of the sinner and the weak person. This expresses itself in requests of the most different kind, in which it is always about that I may initiate something or do or leave this or that towards you.

This is not fundamentally wrong, but it brings you no further or no profit there, where you are demanded to either act yourself, to change something or to express your willingness how you want to behave towards Me. A few examples can clarify what I mean.

Many of your prayers or invocations, you speak from the position of a supplicant. It is a remnant from a time when people were still far away - and for the most part still are today - from recognizing themselves as free creatures of My love who carry a great, spiritual potential within themselves. They are not aware of their task to move towards Me, so that it was and is mostly about asking Me or leaving something to Me and waiting what would happen as a result.

"Father, don't abandon Me," is as much an example as "Lord, open Your heart to Me," "Jesus, please do this or that for Me," or "Dear God, don't forget Me." You will find, if you reflect, many more.

Now, once in the realization that you want to express your will to come closer to Me, transform your requests into honest declarations of intent and speak to Me from the situation of a child of God who is becoming aware. It could then sound like this:

"Father, I will not abandon You",
"Lord, I open my heart to You",
"Jesus, I do this or that for You" or
"Dear God, I can not forget You."

Each of you will feel the difference. It is to get out of the passive attitude of "I am only a weak person" and to do something, to undertake something, perhaps even to promise something, but in any case to become active. If you practice this, then you make an important step into your spirituality: You acknowledge that you are more than helpless sinners; you affirm that a power - My power - wants to come alive in you, which can and will set you in motion, if this is also your will.

Thus, the discipleship I spoke of in My last revelation becomes visible in your life for yourselves and for others.

Successors are needed more urgently than ever before in the time ahead of you. They will be people who are loving and compassionate, but who have also retained their clarity, and whose confidence has become strong and stronger. They will also be willing, if need be, to accept disadvantages for the sake of honesty and probity.

If you wish, ask yourself if you might be among those whose task it is to encourage others in times of suffering, tribulation and fear. For it is not as if only darkness has its plan and has sent its minions into matter. Or do you think that heaven looks on idly when the other side puts its minions in place?

From the light, hosts of people loyal to Me have incarnated, whose ordering and protecting hands are used everywhere, even if it may seem as if the darkness had taken over the rule. There is no power that can permanently take away My children from Me. There is no power that can overcome love and win the victory. And above all there is no death, so that the fear of it, which is subtly and openly worked with in many ways, is completely senseless, even absurd. 1)

You are out of Me, and what I have created, that will not pass away in eternities. There are indeed different forms of life, which can also very well have different qualities, but the life of every creature - thus also your life - can never be ended or destroyed.

You came out of the light, and you will enter the light again. Between departure and re-entry, lies the time given to you to mature, to gain experience and to learn to love - sometimes here in matter, sometimes over there in ethereal realms. But always it is your very own life, which nobody can take away from you. You close your eyes in one world and open them in the next moment in the other world. Sometimes you are longer here, sometimes longer there, until you step out of this cycle and the end of your journey is foreseeable.

Where is the end? With Me, who was, Am and will be your life.

With this knowledge, if you internalize it, can there still be fear of "death"? Let Me replace all your fears with a deep, unshakable trust that we become lovers again, who exchange, who give each other joy, who cannot live apart from each other for long without heartache.

I Am Love, and you are love, even if it seems to you that there are worlds between us. Do not be deceived. I Am closer to you than anything else. Now and for all time.

Amen

1) With this belongs:

Death as you see it ...

Death, as you see it, frightens you greatly.

You have appointed him as your enemy,
but only because no-one really recognized him,
because you look no further than the coffin,
in which a life found it's end.

Death, as you see it, is smoke and mirrors,
a name only, marked by deep fear,
which lies paralyzing on your souls and with it also the very last breath of courage and clarity to the side.

Death, as you see it, does not exist.
With your dull mind and dull look you see one life's small happiness.
When it breaks like glass in your hand,
this appears to you as a great misfortune.

Death, as you see it, makes you blind,
and no-one learns what one taught you:
Life remains intact in death.
And because the dead are not dead,
your teaching is not worth a penny.

From: Rely on the soft sound of your heart