

Enter the ark at the right time

15 November 2020

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, an incarnation is not a Sunday walk, even if you are taught from the satanic side that the combination of "bread and games" is quite good to live with. This idea was implanted in many minds, whereby simultaneously a search for the meaning of life receded into the background, often into the very last place, and there was no room left for Me. This does not mean that those with whom life is not so good will find it easier to recognize the guidance of a loving God in everything.

A lack of knowledge about the meaning and the prospects of an incarnation is the reason why many people go through the years of their lives without ever seriously asking themselves the question "Why? This is true for rich and poor alike, because most people struggle with worries, thoughts about the future and - often repressed - fears day in, day out.

If a soul decides to descend into matter and enter a still small, human body, it usually does so because it recognizes and wants to perceive the many possibilities of learning that an earth life offers. But there are also those whose motives are completely different: They incarnate to fulfill wishes, to live their passions, to enjoy the feeling of power or to serve the dark power that promises them the feeling of superiority for a few years. In doing so, it conceal that a rude awakening is waiting for it's vassals - who are nothing more than puppets of the opposite side - when their earthly eyes close.

In earlier revelations I reminded you that darkness - that is, the formerly pure beings of the heavens, those who caused the fall of the angels - never gave up their fight against Me and you. If this were the case, there would have been an orderly return of all (!) children long ago, lovingly initiated with My help. However, their rebellion and uninterrupted resistance still exist, at present even to an increased degree, which must be clear to anyone who has retained an honest and fearless view of world events.

The opposite of knowledge, remorse and reparation is and remains on the - on their - agenda. It is even intensified because attempts are made to mitigate or avert the consequences of an unlawful act by further tricky moves, which also undermine My Commandment of Love. Your world gets more and more out of control and the mostly unknown masterminds behind the machinations get more and more into the defensive. They do not know it yet. The dark forces from the satanic realms, however, which move many of your mighty ones like puppets, already suspect that their hour has struck. Some of them know it too.

But it doesn't worry them very much; they feel relatively safe in their astral world because it doesn't yet affect them directly. On the other hand, the effects of their shameful actions are becoming more and more apparent on earth. But for the time being it is not the seducers who are affected, but the people; and among them especially those who have "built their lives on sand", which means: those who live without an inner connection with Me, their Creator. But also the causers of the eschatological event which is looming on the horizon and which is recognised by all the awakened ones not only since today, are subject to the law of sowing and reaping.

And according to My law, no-one can escape from My law! It is a law of love that is built on mutual help and support, on goodwill and forbearance, on patience and tolerance. A violation of this commandment inevitably entails corresponding consequences. In My teachings about the law of cause and effect, I as Jesus of Nazareth, have explained this principle to the people. It is no longer taught in it's original form.

Everyone will ultimately sit in judgement on himself and recognise his behaviour directed against My love-commandment as wrong. And yet I will not offend anyone, but will give everyone the opportunity to return into the bosom of his heavenly family; also to the causer of the case including the fellow combatants following him. For I Am love.

I have also already told you that both sides - that is, both the light and the dark - can be effective on your world only indirectly, because they need people who can put into effect on matter what they intended, which was often planned long and hard over decades and centuries (1). Heaven and it's spiritual helpers observe the free will of man in every case; the opposing forces do not. They look for people whom they can address and reach on the basis of their soul-structure, whereby the law of spiritual attraction regulates this kind of mostly unnoticed communication.

The tactics of My and your opponents are also working at the moment because they feel themselves safe because of the ignorance of My human children; because they are not or hardly known as the dark, the destructive. They can work unrecognised, and therefore their game is not perceived. Who knows about the reality of evil, which reigns uninterruptedly in your world, and which tries - very often with success - to leave it's traces in every event, also in your personal areas?

Perhaps now one or the other will understand why, in addition to My loving admonitions, My calls to love one's neighbour, My appeals to peaceableness, My reminders to remain courageous and positive, and My requests to come closer to Me in your everyday life, I also repeatedly point out the dangers that threaten you out of the invisible; especially then and because without this enlightenment and without this knowledge, you have nothing or hardly anything to oppose the ingeniously planned and presented attacks and are therefore not or only very inadequately armed.

The reason why I repeatedly address this aspect is that it is very often forgotten, because you are distracted from its importance by daily business. For it is not just any hypothesis, but a fact, a very real proceeding of the seducer, who puts stone after stone in your way. All too quickly, people tend to forget even what they have recognized as right and important in their everyday life, which constantly floods them with new information and presents them with new problems.

You will never have asked yourself the question whether an angel, that is, a being of the pure-spiritual heavens, has an immune system. Nevertheless, I will give you the answer: No inhabitant of the heavens needs an immune system, as you as humans possess one. Or in other words: His selfless and unconditional love is his unconquerable immune system. Nothing can - in the heavens anyway - penetrate into anything else that has a higher vibration than the "attacker" himself! Internalize this principle, and you will understand many things that still and again and again raise many questions for you.

You as humans have an immune system. Without it you would not be able to survive in the "hostile atmosphere" of your earth. This is another reason why an incarnation always poses a risk. Far more dangerous, because it can have far-reaching consequences, is a weak psychological immune system. You will never have thought about that.

Every soul, i.e. the spirit-being in man, is equipped with an immune system, which is supposed to prevent being defenselessly exposed to attacks from the invisible darkness. It works similarly to your physical defense and makes itself felt, for example, through your conscience, your good intentions, your love of neighbour and much more, and prevents bad decisions and actions. Every defense can be eliminated; in the physical, among other things, by a corresponding health-endangering way of life, in the spiritual, among other things, by whispers and temptations of negative forces, which otherwise would not be able to overcome your protective wall.

One of the most popular approaches to darkness is the creation of fear. It weakens not only the physical, but also the psychological immune system. And every weakening means a penetrable doorway, with which your "fortress man" is forced to open itself to the guidelines and ideas of the satanic side. If you follow fear, then you have little chance of "your self" to remain and being able to look at and evaluate things calmly and objectively.

Do I have to emphasize at this point that fear is not compatible with love and is always connected with a lack of trust in Me and in My guidance? To be free of fear and worry does not mean to close one's eyes to real dangers. But it means: To recognize the fear itself, its producers or senders and their intentions, if necessary also to do something against it outwardly, but otherwise to place oneself into My hands and to take the next steps on the basis of the experiences made with Me in the past, full of trust. To let oneself be "driven mad," to be thrown off-center, does not exactly point to spiritual sovereignty and to seeing through the intentions of the opposite side that wants to take your freedom.

Whoever says that he still lacks trust may - especially when he has known Me for a long time and has had enough opportunity to "test" Me - ask himself the question, how many experiences he has already made with Me in his past ...

But it is never too late to start and thus, metaphorically speaking, to enter the ark in time.

A basic human need is the desire for security. If he has the feeling that this security is endangered or missing, the desire for it becomes bigger and more pronounced. Then he does everything to get back in the longed-for security or to find it at all. By "the next wave" we mean the effects of previously sown bad seed. This bad seed hangs over humanity like a sword of Damocles. But this is not believed, often due to the ignorance mentioned above.

On the other hand, many believe that the mighty of this world can offer you the security you hope for. They forget that good fruit cannot grow from bad seed. If it had been a good seed in the sense of selfless love and mutual help, which your superiors and many of their followers and supporters have sown in the past, then your earth would have been on the way to become a flourishing paradise.

Is it like that? Just because you have been spared a few decades of direct war, many of you already consider this state of affairs the way to a better future.

Wake up, My sons and daughters! No power can override My laws. The past years of relative calm should not put you to sleep. On the contrary, they should inspire you to use this time to shape your future life with Me, untroubled and with less anxiety. You had time to reflect, think about the really important things and, if necessary, set a new course for the remaining time of your life.

Blessed is the one who has used the years or will use the time before him. He has recognized the safe haven, which is the only one that offers protection and security. He has understood what it means - in the figurative sense - to enter the ark at the right time, namely:

To begin to gradually implement My commandment of love in his everyday life, specifically with the people with whom he lives and who he meets. He has begun to discuss everything with Me and to hand over to Me his small and great concerns, knowing that it is I who directs the destinies of the world, but also the steps of each individual. He has entered into an ever closer union with Me; he has consciously let Me become his brother and friend in Jesus Christ, the love in Me.

Anyone who has decided to live such a life and then made the appropriate effort has already entered the ark. He also experiences the real security, which is expressed in the form of freedom, courage and sincerity, in which fears and worries have no place anymore.

Are you ready yet? Then you know what I'm talking about. Then we already go hand in hand. Then you are already a light that also illuminates the paths of your neighbor. Or do you want it to become so in your life because you are not yet ready? Then give Me your 'yes', your honest 'yes', which has love for Me as it's foundation, and you will experience what security means.

But as long as you have not yet internalised that you are spiritual beings who have only gone into matter for a short period of time, so long can you be manipulated, taken captive and kept captive, and led through the arena of this world like trained animals. This is not worthy of you because you are My sons and daughters, creatures of love, possessing an inherent, all-encompassing consciousness, which, however, is currently not yet developed to the desired extent. But it is awaiting the ability to unfold. This is one of the reasons why a soul decides to incarnate.

When you read "internalized", be aware that this means more than just knowing that your humanity is not your true nature. It means to live with this heart-conviction and to build your actions on it. Then you begin to direct your steps towards the ark. It also shows you that you believe My words. Just reading or hearing them does not bring you any profit. For then they are no more than letters on a piece of paper that you put aside when you have skimmed over the contents. The ark - your safety - thus remains far removed.

The rulers of the satanic-demonic hierarchy are masters of lies, pretense and manipulation (2). They have at their disposal the entire instrumentarium of seduction, which has a scope that is unimaginable for you and is equipped with all thinkable and unthinkable sophistication. These powers will not take human tools that practice charity and whose thinking and acting is based on philanthropy. They would not succeed anyway because of spiritual repulsion. They must therefore find people through whose character traits they can bring their intentions into the world and put them into practice there.

This principle will not suit everyone.

In their long-term planning, the opposing forces proceed in a way that is basically known to your strategists in politics, economics and the military, but which they do not know or master in this level of sophistication. It won't hurt to think about it once in a while. For you are confronted again and again with tasks that are easier to solve in this way. Dealing with it and not just getting started or working on it, would often save you work and disappointment. It applies to your daily activities as well as to your spiritual work.

This is how the dark ones plan: they set themselves a goal, to be realized either in the short or long term. Then the individual steps are determined, whereby the question is very important: What conditions must be present to achieve the desired result? It is about the step that has to be taken beforehand, so that it can serve as a basis for the next step. Once this prerequisite has been met in planning terms, they consider what needs to be done beforehand, i.e. what needs to be set up or brought about so that the next step can be successful.

This was also how it was done when almost 2,000 years ago, they began to falsify My simple teaching of love. Their own ideas were "installed" in the minds to begin with, on which further deviations could be built up unnoticed - until the original was no longer recognisable.

If all this seems too theoretical to you, take a practical example: If you want to build something, you first have to address the question of financing. If there is not enough money, you have to think about how to get the money or a loan. If there are several options available, you have to decide which one should be used. Then it must be considered whether the monthly installments can be covered. If this is not so easy to do, we will check how to get or earn additional money. And so on, and so on ... This procedure even applies if you are only planning your vacation.

If you want to build prudently and ensure the success of your project, you will not be able to avoid going through the individual steps, not be guided by pressing desires, consider risks and assess them correctly or be prepared to plan differently if circumstances require it.

The goal of the darkness is set. Since it did not succeed in building up it's own creation after leaving the heavens, the aim was to entangle humans more and more in guilt, in order to make their way to their heavenly homeland more difficult, or impossible. My deed of redemption on Golgotha also prevented this. Now, in one of many steps, it is a matter of making the conditions on your planet so hostile to life in the long run that the earth is no longer suitable as a training ground for souls willing to incarnate to the same extent as before. Sickness, need and misery should furthermore contribute to people losing more and more faith in Divine justice. Superficial pleasures, which are supposed to make people forget the meaning of life, do the rest.

What kind of atmosphere - if you want to practice heart-logic - which I teach you - must be created beforehand, in order to be able to bring mankind easier and faster than before on the desired course, and if possible, worldwide, because that promises the greatest success? The technical possibilities for this are available to you today in sufficient measure so that far more people can be manipulated at once than was the case in earlier times. Whereby the principle of the procedure has remained the same since time immemorial.

Remember that the sharpest weapon of the other side is fear. Fear can be controlled at will, especially if you offer them a security-concept as a solution, which they are only too happy to agree to in the hope that they will then be free of all worries and able to put aside all restrictions. Is this "concept of security" founded by those who designed it with the desire to help and serve? Or are there possibly other interests behind it? You have to ask yourself these questions. You will find the right answers when your consciousness has already sharpened accordingly and your soul-immune system is intact. And it is still intact or will be again, if you stay alert or wake up.

That is why I call you more strongly to vigilance. This can be uncomfortable, because then you may have to deal with many things that you would actually rather avoid. There is also the "danger" that you will become disillusioned because you will have to take off your rose-colored glasses, which you had put on - similar to an infatuation.

The real danger, however, is to keep your eyes closed as a precaution so that you do not have to recognize the signs of the times. "Just don't wake up" is written on the signs of your seducers, which have been uninterruptedly presented to you - and this for many centuries, but now on greater scale and more consistently than ever before. "Waking up can be harmful to your harmony, which is important to you." That it is an illusory harmony based on entertaining and distracting illusions, is not revealed to you. If someone does, you can be sure that few will believe his words.

A mood in which the reins are being pulled ever tighter, inevitably ensures that many people not only agree with it in the end, but even downright long for apparent solutions to be implemented as soon as possible so that fears can evaporate and normality can return. In this way, it is gradually becoming a general wish that the security that every person urgently desires, may quickly become an everyday standard again.

But is it really this security that man needs? Perhaps then when he does not know the assurance in Me or does not believe in Me and My word. But most people do not know the price they pay for the security the world offers, which is praised with all its advantages. This price is like a spiritual deprivation of freedom and can only be repaid with great effort and toil. Which means that it is not easy, but with My help, still possible to free oneself from the sticky web of the seductive spider.

Freedom, along with dignity, is one of the most beautiful gifts I have given to all My children. So the evil will try to start here and take both from you. You can only avoid this logic if you question or reject the correctness of My enlightening words; which is of course your right, without this changing anything about My love for you.

External freedom can be taken away from you temporarily, for example by restricting your movement. Can you also be restricted in your inner freedom? If this succeeds, be it through the generation of fear or through worried thoughts, it is always a proof that you - if you want to, because you consider it important - should work with Me to strengthen your soul's immune system. Because this inner work will not bear its fruits tomorrow, it is important not to postpone a decision to place oneself under My protection until the fictional doomsday. For nobody - except Me - knows the day and the hour.

So the fruits of your work cannot show themselves immediately in their full extent, because here, too, it is true that it has to be carried out step by step. One thing builds on the other, one thing serves as the basis for the following inner growth. The necessary prerequisites must therefore also be given here so that your soul-maturing, which I accompany with My love, rests on a firm foundation.

And yet there is only one prerequisite, a basic prerequisite, needed to go immediately consciously to My hand, to immediately take your reserved place in My heart: your earnest and sincere readiness to want to walk your path of life with Me in the future.

I must therefore wait so long until you come to Me and give Me your 'yes', because I have given you free will, which I never violate. But if you decide to take this step, there will be no waiting time - not even for a nanosecond - because at the same moment, My Love will set everything in motion and mobilise all the necessary powers of heaven necessary to set your course anew and bring you safely into the Ark.

Take this step, My son, My daughter, for love! And in doing so, leave aside everything that is possibly still present in anxious motives, or because you perhaps believe that you can also negotiate external advantages with such a connection. Devotion is the magic word that opens the door to My heart wide for you.

Do not be frightened, My beloved ones. Also and above all not through My earnest words, which serve your protection. Love will prevail, but it will spare no-one a necessary learning process. But it will make it easier so that you can recognize it for what it is and understand that it will lead you into freedom as long as you accept it, go through the process with My help and so carry out the transformation of heaviness into lightness and light.

Amen.
