

Manipulation of human behavior by the darkness

15 February 2021

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, responsible parents always adjust the help they give their children as they grow up. Which means that although there are also repetitions, admonitions and reminders, because good education is purposeful, it does not stop there. Ultimately, the aim is to provide children with foundations during the period of physical and psychological maturation on which to build, and which should serve as preparation for the life they will one day have to master on their own responsibility.

Do you believe that I act differently?

For many decades and centuries - if you add the prophets of the Old Covenant: for millennia - I have enlightened My human children about the fact that there is a higher and greater power than their own, small and transient world dominion: That it is I, their God and Creator, who directs their destinies, and that I have created laws in which everything is bound. Also their loveless actions, which are only directed to their own interests.

Sons and daughters faithful to Me have transmitted messages from My heart to My ignorant children, always with the intention of widening their vision and directing it to the true life that awaits them after their so-called death. Never has there been so much information and knowledge about life in the afterlife in your world as at this time. Who wanted to find, he could find; yes, he has to find, because the law of attraction led him to the sources which he needed for his next steps of development. Because it was and is always true for all times that I let Myself be found with certainty by the one who seeks Me; and that I convey to him by My presence in his everyday life: I Am there, I Am with you!

Whoever follows My quiet knocking in his heart, cannot be held in the long run by the negative powers that are present in your world and control and dominate many people - without them noticing it. In order not to lose more and more people and thus their souls, they had to and must do everything to bind people and thus prevent them from developing upward. This is their only chance. They truly use it, and a large part of My children run into their cleverly set traps.

My commandment of love, which I gave you as Jesus of Nazareth, I have brought to men in all details again and again and have illuminated and explained many aspects understandably. It is true that repetitions were necessary, because the mind forgets all too quickly and man falls back into his daily routine; but at the same time My teachings became more and more concrete, more and more adapted to your time and your understanding. They brought and bring you the tools to put into action, that is, to practice in your daily lives, the knowledge that is abundant in most of you.

This conversion, comparable to knowledge moving from your head to your hearts and hands, is urgently needed. Why? Because I know what the years and decades ahead of you will bring. Because I want to arm you, make you strong, because in the coming time, the opposing forces will do everything to plunge the world more and more into chaos and terror.

My law allows this, because the barrel called sowing and reaping is overflowing, and the set causes, which have been pushing for a long time more and more frequently and violently to the effect, are overflowing. In this, the darkness is not only concerned with impairing or harming you physically; it is intent on influencing your post-mortal life. Because if you do not succeed to stay with Me in your inner being or to come into My arms in time and to seek refuge there - with a loving heart - many souls will go into the astral realms after discarding their material body and remain there for a while. Their further development is thereby made more difficult, or prevented for a long time.

My word of revelation, given through many of My sons and daughters, has always aimed at sparing you these hardships. Love - and nothing else, the short version of My commandment of love, arises solely from My longing for each of you and My desire both to spare you hardships and suffering already during your lifetime and to clear the way for you, which you will enter as a soul.

Perhaps a picture can clarify for you the situation in which your world - and thus each one of you - finds yourselves:

Two sides are facing each other in a confrontation that has been prepared for a very long time. The outbreak of the fight is imminent in the not too distant future, although, taking into account the preliminary skirmish - because that's all it is at the moment - you can also say: "The battle has already begun." The big scares are yet to come. But both parties have already positioned their fighters. From "above" many highly developed souls have incarnated, also those who do not yet live in absoluteness, but who want to make their contribution to facilitate the coming time for all who are of good will. From "below" have come those - also carefully planned - who are interested in building up and extending their status of power through decay and destruction. They are vassals of darkness who, through their distance from God and through ignorance of My laws, do not know - do not yet know - that the mountain of their already set causes is piling higher and higher. And the very greatest part of My sons and daughters - ignorant, indecisive, fearful and easily manipulated - are between the fronts.

Whoever has to decide for or against something, is dependent on information, especially as long as his feeling does not yet show him the safe way. That is why it is so important that you practice the logic of the heart that I teach you, so that you learn to see through the tricky machinations of the other side. Because it knows very well about the value of information, with which, if it is skillfully prepared and presented, a great many people can be misled and then dominated. Anyone who gains a monopoly over the instruments of spreading news and opinions, has a relatively easy time steering people in his or her favor, even under the threat of punishment if necessary.

The policy of distortion and misrepresentation of My love-teaching, for example, carried out by the princes of the church, still shows its devastating effect after centuries. But for lack of other sources - except through the teachings of a few men and women who lived in My spirit, but in many cases were eliminated - people had to rely on what was offered to them as supposedly My teaching, but which was not only offered, but almost always also imposed on them.

Not much has changed in the way of influencing. However, your technical possibilities today also give a voice to those who are of a different opinion and can justify it credibly. For the forces of the evil this does not represent a too big problem: They spread their "truths" in many ways among the people, who often absorb unchecked what is put in front of them. The parable of the man who sowed good seed and then found that his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat aptly describes this event.

Today, compared to medieval times, you have the opportunity to hear and read a lot of things outside of what is officially offered, but you are not spared one thing: namely, to search for, find and finally decide on the truth content in the large offer of right and wrong information. This applies to the many transmissions "from the spirit", which are for the most part not from My spirit, as well as to the information policy on the current events that determine your everyday life worldwide.

Much of it contains half-truths or untruths, which, however, are not simply presented clumsily, but in most cases are so skillfully prepared that they meet the often unconscious, hidden desires and ideas of many people. For even the satanic powers know the inestimable value of the logic of the heart, which threatens them, and which makes people free and able to decide and live on their own responsibility. It therefore uses its antidote:

Without the person noticing it, his interests are addressed, so that he is ready to follow the given direction. Therefore, it is not for nothing that I have said many times*): Whether you see through a thing or situation and evaluate it correctly, is not so much a question of intelligence, but of your interests. Far too quickly, most readers or listeners of My words have passed over this truth. It would have revealed to them much about their own person with enough honest reflection. But it is never too late ...

Interests also include everything that serves to avoid fear: fear for one's health, for one's own life, for that of relatives or loved ones, for the loss of jobs or livelihoods, for the loss of freedom, for the loss of leisure and pleasure, and much more. In the spiritual: Fear of punishment by God or of an after-death, eternal existence in hell or of strokes of fate due to sinfulness or of not being loved by God anymore and, and, and Working with fear has always been a proven tool of the opposition. However, most people would deny that they are also affected by it if they are approached about it. It is the tool that not only promises the greatest success, but also produces it. And at the same time it is the opposite of what I teach and offer you: Safety and security for the one who entrusts his life to Me, who implements My commandment of love in daily life, who follows Me in this way.

When you practice getting to the root of your fears and begin to work with Me on the roots, you bring your fears out of hiding and practically bring them into the present. Then give them to Me and remember in the next distressing situation that wants to frighten you, that I Am with you. I live in you! In this way, little by little, your fears dissolve in My light.

In such a time, My beloved ones, as it has never been before in the history of mankind, it can no longer be a matter of merely providing you with even more facts, for example, about life after death, or of giving you pleasure with descriptions of future beautiful and luminous planes. Admittedly, this knowledge is also part of it for many, but - even if My word seems very serious to you, perhaps too serious to some - it is now about more, at least for those of you who feel that the "time of milk and honey" is over, as I recently put it.

I gave and have been giving a lot of knowledge to the world for a long time, so that the connections become clear to people, so that they understand the meaning and purpose of their existence on earth and lose the fear of dying. I will continue to do this; but those who have not only read but also internalized My words so far, will have realized by now that very much is at stake. Many, in whose hearts I have been able to address the longing, do not need detailed knowledge anyway. They have recognized the truth that I Am love, and they have set out on their way full of confidence through their daily efforts, even without knowing how I will arrange things; how I will set the course, both in their present life and in their life hereafter.

The prayer - in the sense of the following or similar words - "Take over my life, You know best what is right for me", creates a childlike trusting basis which guarantees that everything will develop in the sense of My love and care. Who then carries in his heart the certainty that now everything will happen which is good for him as a human being and for his soul, with him the stress which still existed before, reduces considerably - or he dissolves completely in the consciousness to be safe with me. Correspondingly positive will also be the physical effects; because that stress is a main cause of many diseases, your scientists have long since proven.

To acquire such an inner attitude is a high goal, which cannot be achieved "by left hand" and even less by only consuming spiritual literature. It presupposes, My beloved ones, that what is read or heard is put into practice; at least a serious effort must be present, which I support to a great extent. The need to work on this, is becoming more important every day for all those who have recognized the seriousness of the times.

Blessed are those who - according to their possibilities - have included or will soon include Me in their lives. Blessed are they because they go toward Me and My outstretched arms full of trust. In this way I can guide them most surely. The decision for such a step, however, must be made by each one himself on the basis of the freedom I have given him. My Christ love is waiting to be called upon and accepted.

Because the spirit dominates matter and not vice versa, the psychological immune system also stands above the physical one. It is not for nothing that evolution has created an immune system in plants, animals and humans to help protect against disease-causing invaders. Only man, who unlike plants and animals has a fully developed soul, has a spiritual defense, which I call the psychological immune system.

As the "crown of My creation", the human being possesses the ability to decide in freedom what his thoughts revolve around, where his ideas and wishes go; with which he strengthens or weakens his immune system at the same time. If it is largely intact, then it can ward off the invisible attacks from the ethereal. It's radiant power is transferred to the physical immune system, because spirit is above matter. Therefore, the higher a person "vibrates", the lighter his spiritual radiation is, the more powerful is also his immune system, the sooner it is able to build up an effective defense against the manifold influences of pathogens.

Of course, the darkness also knows this. That is why it starts at this point - also at this point:

By seducing you unnoticed in many ways, your soul-power is diminished, whereby it achieves, on the one hand, that you burden yourself emotionally and, on the other hand, that you endanger your health acutely or in the long run. Damage to one's health comes on the other hand, because the human being then, because of pain and suffering, often also in connection with damaging side effects of medicines, becomes dissatisfied and unstable. Then he increasingly seeks compensation in the worldly and runs the risk of losing faith in Me. In his ignorance, he often quarrels and breaks with Me, and not seldom he makes Me responsible for his self-made fate.

Even then, if it does not come to that, many are nevertheless, due to their unenlightenment and lack of practice, not able - often also not willing - to practice self-knowledge in order to recognize, with My support, that the causes are to be sought and found wholly or partly in their own behavior.

Whoever approaches you visibly as a human being or invisibly as a spiritual being with dishonest intentions and tries to disguise or hide his true motives, will always proceed according to the same scheme:

He will first try to arouse your interest. If he has succeeded in this, he will take the next step and make the matter palatable to you. If this has also led to success, then you are no longer far away from seriously dealing with the subject, the idea, the project, the person, the hoped-for pleasure, the promised advantage - or whatever it may be. He has you "on the hook"; the first step of seduction has succeeded. Let's call it fascination. It serves as an entrance for the following steps, of which you do not suspect anything yet, let alone that you know about it. You must remain in the dark in this phase, because otherwise there is the danger that the seduction does not lead to the goal.

This is how the darkness proceeds. This is how every influence begins, which in the next phase already leads to a more or less measure of dependence, which makes it easy for your opponent to start his manipulation unnoticed. He succeeds in many cases because you do not know about this approach or are not attentive. And it is by no means only obvious addictions that are meant here. Also the tendency to exercise power or to hoard riches or to strive for worldly prestige and much more, belong to the repertoire of seduction.

And if then an event comes on the scene which frightens you, consciously or unconsciously, because you fear to lose some or much of what is still so important to you - what then? Then you are forced to make a decision, one way or the other ... Your interests will decisively influence your for or against.

The negative forces always have a clear result in mind: to bind you to ideas and habits, to views and ways of acting which in themselves represent nothing evil, but which serve to make the person unfree. This in turn means that in difficult situations or times of crisis, for example, he can no longer freely choose the good and right thing that he would have chosen before, that is, without the binding that has taken place.

In the last phase, the purposefully brought about bond, which is hardly or not perceived as such, but which leads into an even greater dependence, man has lost an often large part of his original freedom which I gave. Seen in this way, every weakness of character represents a bond, especially if it is cultivated for a long time. But not only man has then allowed himself to be bound. Since he continuously shapes the state of his soul by his feelings, speech and actions throughout his life, it, too, no longer has the freedom that originally belongs to a child of God. Such a process can take place over several incarnations, intensifying or weakening, depending on whether the person pursues egoistic or selfless goals.

According to the law that like attracts like, after physical death the soul then goes to the otherworldly realms that correspond to it's nature, it's vibration. Often in such cases it is the astral realms that attract a bound soul.

A bond, no matter what kind, always leads to the fact that the person tries to keep what was important to him or gave him a certain security during his lifetime. If this behavior has possibly been practiced over many decades, then it may have become a rigid corset without which the person can hardly or no longer live contentedly, relaxed and happily. It has become a part of his thoughts and actions; often it also forms the basis of his financial existence, and he is afraid of having to give it up or give something of it away. Leaving what he has come to love, then becomes very difficult or even impossible. In the worst case, he sees everything that wants to take away his apparent security as a threat. Fear of loss spreads through him.

The only way to detach oneself from recognized character flaws = attachments is to turn to Me and to give the path of life a new direction. To let oneself fall trustingly into My arms, however, can mean hard work for the human being under certain circumstances. Because he does not know what awaits him. "Your will be done", especially when such words come from the heart and are not just spoken with the lips, is no longer an alternative for him in such a phase of life.

The satanic approach, the creeping, unnoticed seduction via the stages of fascination, dependence, influence, manipulation and binding, has borne fruit - maybe even for all times.

My sons and daughters, I have described to you in a few sentences the danger that exists at all times for every human being. There would be much more to say about it. But it is enough to encourage vigilance in those who strive to put My commandment of love into practice. In your time it is doubly important to follow the events with an alert mind and not to be seduced to wrong conclusions.

Remember that the other side tries to manipulate you through fear. Examine yourselves to what extent My enlightenment about attachments applies to you and your life. No human being is free from attachments. They are the price that your soul pays at its incarnation when it enters the earth, the domain of darkness. The risks are great, but so are the incomparable opportunities to have become richer by many experiences and to leave the earth again purified. The next rung on Jacob's ladder to heaven has been reached. This requires nothing more than love - and nothing else.

If you want to think about your attachments, on the one hand, do not be too strict with yourselves - I loosen every attachment that is handed over to Me with an honest heart! - but on the other hand, go quietly a little bit into the depth. Not all bonds can be found at once. If you pray meaningfully in your heart, without becoming uncertain or perhaps even depressed or anxious: "You take over my life, You know best what is right for me", then you are on the best way to be able to detach yourselves from what the world offers you with a seductive smile. Then you can let yourself fall into My arms with a sigh of relief in the certainty: Everything is good!

Then you will no longer be overcome by fears at the thought of having to leave this or that. If it is good for you, then it stays with you. If it helps your soul to let it go, it is I who give you the strength for it. What you then place in My light, can no longer frighten or burden you. And the darkness must let you go, because it has no more power over you. Your ties have been loosened by Me because of your decision.

You are a child of this world at this time. But try to be in this world but not of this world.

Change, even in tiny little pieces or steps, the world by staying positive. But be careful! This does not mean the false positive thinking that denies reality according to the motto: "Everything is good". This will not get you anywhere; on the contrary, it will lead to deep disappointment. The time is hard and will become even harder.

To remain positive means to look the facts in the eye and to recognize what will and must come as something difficult, as disaster, but not to let it pull you down and frighten you. To remain positive means, in the knowledge that I have everything in hand and do not make any mistake, to take your place, to fill it to the best of your ability and to pass on what I put in you in love and encouragement for those who need help and comfort.

I give you one thought in conclusion, which you can deepen if you wish:

You all know the term "predicament," which describes a situation that is hopeless and cannot be resolved one way or the other without the greatest difficulty or massive loss or destruction. Humanity as a whole has maneuvered itself into such a situation that there is no way to get out of it unscathed.

This may raise the question of what Jesus, who knew a solution for everything, would have done under these circumstances. The answer is simple, and it invites reflection:

"He would not have gotten into such a situation."

Amen
