

Ignorance and unwillingness make you vulnerable

16 August 2019

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, My Word of Revelation today comes from My Wisdom, which does not mean that it does not contain all My Love, too. Its focus, however, is on letting you look a little deeper into the connections that affect your own life, your very personal well-being and woe, but also the fate of groups and communities and that of whole peoples and cultures. This is necessary because you are to become again responsible children of My love, who can effectively express this love inherent in them in their existence. But this is only possible when you no longer let yourselves be pushed around ignorantly like "chess pieces on the board of your life".

I want to help you fill in with knowledge, some of the still blind spots in your consciousness - on your "soul spectacles" - that have been created by an extremely skilful and still used approach of the opposite forces. Those who follow My Words with the heart, not only with their external eyes and ears, and who are ready to reconsider My enlightenments, will succeed in doing so.

Mankind faces an exceedingly powerful opponent whose danger for the salvation of the soul of each individual - but often also for his physical health - cannot be valued highly enough. There are two reasons for this.

First: the majority of people have only a very vague idea - if any - of this danger, which at the same time means that it is hardly recognized, if at all, by the name with which it is assigned when it is called: the devil, Satan, Lucifer and others. I call them the obscurity, the darkness, the opposing forces, My and your opponents, and the beings of the Fall.

And the other reason: it follows from this that My human children have hardly developed a truly effective strategy for countering the uninterrupted attempts of disturbance, influence and manipulation up to and including destruction. - which can let the permanent temptations and attacks come to nothing, but the question: to what extent My Commandment was and is observed, is answered by itself with The implementation of My Love-Commandment is indeed the means - the only one a glance at the state of your world.

The request for My protection through prayer is indeed a possibility, but you know for yourselves that it is not enough to send a call for help to heaven in such situations in the hope that the fundamental problem of permanent restriction, despondency, anxiety, negative view and even depression and hopelessness, is solved.

It can be useful to put oneself in the position of a dangerous opponent in order to get a certain idea of one's approach and goals. No good strategist who wants to protect himself, his family, his friends or even his people, will fail to do so. But why do My children act like this? In the figurative sense: "Why do they sit there and wait?"

Who questions why this or that irregularity or seeming injustice suddenly enters his life, especially since most of you now know that there is no coincidence? Unfortunately, many still believe that it is I - Love - who is responsible for it. And so quite a few still assume that it is a punishment on My part if their life is not as happy as they imagine or wish.

Let Me at this point insert something that is actually unnecessary. I do it nevertheless, because I see the question rising in many a heart: "Is it not too hard to speak of opposing forces, of the opponent, of danger, of darkness, etc.? About the fact that they mercilessly damage people, manipulate them, drive them into infirmity or physical death and oppress and bind them with all conceivable means? Are these beings not also children of God, who deserve our love?"

My beloved, the love I Am in a greatness incomprehensible to all beings, includes everything I have ever created and will create in this love forever and ever. All, without exception, whatever evil they have done.

If this had not been so, then I would not have come into the world Myself; because I also - and especially wanted - to save and fetch back the renegades among My children, who intended to destroy My creation and with it also themselves, but which they were not aware of. In all eternity there was and is no other power than Mine, which was able to counter the concentrated attempt of Satana*) and her followers to create their own creation according to their ideas with a "stop".

With this I did not interfere with the free will of the fallen, but the causes created by them over an infinitely long period of time had an effect; but not as punishment, but in the form that I gave Myself as a "sacrifice" for those who wanted to destroy Me and cleared the way for them to return to their homeland.**)

Can you imagine a greater love?

I have saved them because their plan has been thwarted by My human dying on the Cross and the subsequent redemption; the gates to the heavens have since been wide open again. The so-called Fall or fall of an angel, which is mentioned only in very few places in your Scripture, was stopped. But without the knowledge of the Fall, which is a unique, that is, non-recurring event in creation, My act of redemption cannot be sensibly conveyed. The knowledge about it therefore represents the fulcrum and pivotal point in order to come to a right understanding at all as to why the non-heavenly worlds including the material universe, have come into being. And how and why the relentless struggle out of the invisible - of which hardly anyone knows anything, and from which nobody is spared - has been waged for an infinitely long time and strives in your time for a temporary climax.

I have allowed the formation of all these spheres so that Satana and those who were in bondage to her, could have a place to stay. The matter formed at the lowest point of the fall. On your earth, life gradually developed, which finally also brought forth the people.

Remember: Everything is evolution! Thus the fallen were given the opportunity to incarnate in order to prepare and initiate their return, if they so wished.

The material world, together with all the forms that it produced, thus arose as a result of the Fall. There would not be a single non-heavenly realm if everything had remained in heavenly unity. Why should I have created something outside of unity?

But I have not only saved My fallen children from their looming dissolution, their self-imposed annihilation. I will also fetch them back, because on the one hand this is My will and on the other hand I have the power to do this.

When this will happen, lies in the free will of the powers that were against Me and you and still are; for they still have their free will, I have not touched it. But all of them, whom I still love to the same extent as those who remained loyal to Me, are subject to the law of sowing and reaping until their return home, which also applies equally to all beings outside the heavens.

As Jesus of Nazareth, I was not excluded from it either. If I would have been, then I would have violated My own law. But I have overcome all hostilities and temptations and thus shown people what a deep love and a great longing can do. Without Me confronting the negative forces to finally triumph over them, an exemplary function would not have been possible; and My call to follow Me and to live and love in the same way, would have been without inner strength and ineffective.

The possible objection that one would rather not speak so clearly about evil, its purposes, their motives, intentions and procedures, or preferably not at all, because such a thing does not correspond to the commandment of love, is therefore not justified. The secret, which is basically none - because I have shown it to you - is this:

Do not close your eyes and ears, but perceive what is being planned and what is happening - and still love!

This, My sons and daughters, is one of the hardest tasks ever. It is not done by ignoring the unpleasant and dangerous. The beings and powers behind it would like that, but that is not the way. Of course, it would be wrong to stay at it and with it and to light up and think about everything that could happen from all sides again and again. Then the negative could very quickly settle in your feelings and thoughts.

Look and listen to what is necessary and important to look and listen to, and then set all your positives against it. The best way to deal with what you encounter in the sense of love, is to show through your example that you are children of My love, who do not sleep and are not ignorant and unwilling, but who strive to live love in their daily life! In this way evil is redeemed. When, is not in your hands.

Remember what I once told you: "You are responsible for sowing, not for harvesting." Leave the harvest and its timing to Me.

What you live by and what your brothers and sisters who are still in the dark experience as effects, will cause them - even in eons - to think about themselves, their actions and the circumstances of their existence. For the way of their existence cannot in any way be described as what you understand by "life". They have cut themselves off from the stream of life, which is nothing but My love-energy. But they do not know or believe it and vehemently deny such an explanation.

Many of them vegetate, full of hatred, anger and revenge. They desire to harm those who - in their eyes - unfairly live a more peaceful and carefree life. Others "live" like in a kind of dream, without drive, without future perspectives, without joy and without light. Their world is grey, tough, dreary and oppressive. They are severely bound, slaves of those who are smarter and more ruthless than they are, and who have managed to ascend their "career ladder" by obedience to their superiors.

The higher a being is in the "Hierarchy of the Dark One", the more advantages are granted to it by those who are still above it. At the top of the hierarchy are the demons, and among them, all those who wish to benefit from the energy they receive from others, primarily from human beings, but of which they must pass on in large portion to their superiors.

They do not receive divine energy from Me for their actions are directed against My Law of Love. But they are crafty enough - because many still know parts of the laws of creation - to get in a roundabout way, at least a small amount of the urgently needed life-energy.

My sons and daughters, now use your minds with the inclusion of the heart-logic that I am teaching you. What "fuel pump" do they use? Which ones would you use? Would you try to sink your teeth into those whose love-vibration is above yours, whose power is stronger than yours, so your failure is already determined? Or would you start where you are able to notice soul weaknesses in your opponent - which are equal character weaknesses than yours - what can easily be read among other things in the aura? Wouldn't weaknesses promise you from the outset great or even greater chances of success if you attacked these weaknesses? And rightly so?

The greatest protection of all the beings who are around you, who are more or less often or regularly trying to influence you, is not just that they are invisible. It consists in the fact that you hardly know that they are there and how they proceed! Yes, that they even exist!

This is at the same time their most effective weapon in the uninterrupted warfare that all negative forces are waging to obtain the much-needed energy. Whether they can keep it to, or claim it for themselves, or simply serve as suppliers and obey those above them in the hierarchy of the dark ones.

The main aspiration of the fallen angels must therefore be to protect themselves in order to be able to continue their destructive work as unrecognized and undisturbed as possible. What was and is there more effective than to portray one's own existence in a thousand different ways, diffused, contradictory, confusing and unclear? Thus the true face, the real nature of evil is not recognized by many, with the result that it's constant, threatening presence is considered unrealistic. But the danger has not been eliminated.

They did not only accept the ridicule of depicting, for example, a devil with a tail, a trident and a horse's foot as evil, which nobody really took and takes seriously; they actively supported this idea, which was modified and reissued again and again in many variations.

The result: Very few still know about the very real danger that emanates from these forces. They don't know about their intentions and the countless ways they use to directly influence the people they can reach because of the sophistication of their actions and the soul-nature that prevails in them.

Anyone who warns of this, will be exposed to ridicule or accused of scaremongering. Thus the opposing forces have reached their goal: hardly anyone really believes in them anymore - and if they do, then with blurred or abstract ideas - and the ignorance thus generated, is the best shield behind which they can practice the seduction and bonding of My human children unhindered.

Can you still, at least conditionally, protect yourself from these influences? Yes, but it presupposes that you do know about the aggressor against whom you want to defend yourselves successfully; that therefore the truth about the constantly prevailing danger of influencing your conduct, is brought closer to My children, and that this is done without any emerging fears preventing the discussion of this subject.

Who should do this when the immediate presence of negative forces and their ingenious approach is largely unknown or at least misrepresented by those who feel called to bring My teaching closer to the people?

Once again for reflection: Where would you start - if you wanted to work against Me - to reach many people with a changed teaching of love? Would you choose insignificant people with little or no influence on others? Or would you - metaphorically speaking - "aim at the king" in your project directed against Me, that is, at those who have means and ways at their disposal to knowingly or unknowingly bring inaccuracies, falsehoods and twists of My simple love among the people? Assuming you hit the King?

Did the forces of darkness strike? The answer is not difficult to find when you - with open eyes and honest hearts - have to look at your world-situation today and realize that humanity is further away than ever from living My commandment of love for God and neighbour.

I have told you many times that I Am the only perpetual motion-machine of creation. This means that there is no other source of power than Mine, from which everything came forth and comes forth for all eternity! No being lives out of itself, each one is received from My Love. The fact that I alone Am the Source of all beings, is not recognized by the forces that caused the Fall and are still working towards a two-part creation. Although they too feel that they are energy-dependent, they are not ready to see their Creator and the ever-flowing love in Me.

The reduction of their energy brought and brings many disadvantages to the beings of darkness. First and foremost, due to the reduction of the quantity and quality of the energy, it is the loss of a reasonably acceptable life, if their existence can even be described as life. The stronger among them succeeded in attracting the weaker ones as "energy suppliers", but this is not only true for the souls in the astral realms, which lead an unfortunate existence of slavery. And they have succeeded and continue to succeed in shaping My divine energy for their own purposes and in abusing it in such a way that others can be manipulated.

However, the main suppliers of the urgently needed energy, are the people. They are My sons and daughters who - out of ignorance or unwillingness follow their own law - their ego, and thus disregard My love-commandment to a greater or lesser extent. This does not mean the small irregularities that repeatedly undermine you as men. But even in such situations you often feel how, e.g. after a disappointment, anger, after worries or arguments, you become powerless, listless or discouraged. You have lost energy. Where has it disappeared to? Who got it, or rather, has taken it? Nothing in My creation disappears or dissolves "just like that" ...

The opposing forces very well still know a part of My spiritual laws. They work with it, and the law of attraction helps them to find those people from whom the withdrawal of the so urgently needed energy, is relatively easy. They know your mistakes and weaknesses and purposefully start there. The seductive work begins with the coaxing, which you either follow or - if you recognize the intention - you oppose with a clear 'no' in My name.

What does this mean in practice? What kind of insights can you draw from this, that will protect you from being influenced and possibly seriously damaged by negative spirits and the destructive impersonal forces they have created in the form of energy-fields around the globe?

The control of human beings by darkness - which intervened massively in their thinking and acting - had reached it's temporary climax two thousand years ago, which at the same time represented a low point in their mental and spiritual development. The opposite side had set it's foot in all ruling religions. This happened and still happens with high efficiency - because the method proved itself in their eyes - by their attack in most cases taking place from within. Unnoticed, a seed of discord, falsehood and false doctrines was and is sown, which finally germinates and in this way paralyses or destroys an individual, a group or a system from within. He who does so, does not have to remove the signpost at all. It is much more effective to twist it by a few degrees, so that the wanderer who believes in good conscience that he is on the right path, misses his goal.

The attempts of high spirits to persuade people to think differently and to behave in a new way in the sense of a more loving togetherness, had not produced the hoped-for fruits. Therefore I entered matter. My mission as Jesus of Nazareth was to teach people one principle and to exemplify it; a principle that could be understood and lived by all: love. At the time of My Incarnation, many ideologies and worldviews had already developed, the contents of which were all more or less permeated by the intentions and ideas of the opposing forces.

With My simple teaching "love - and nothing else", I turned everything upside down, never asking to fanatically and radically throw everything else overboard. The path of lived love is a path on which each one freely determines which step he wants to take, but does not lose sight of the goal: to gradually return to the love he has been in for eternity.

You might now ask: Can I go through My days joyfully, unburdened and happy despite the knowledge I have just received? My beloved child, I tell you: precisely because of this knowledge you can be unconcerned. For My Words help you to see the traps set by the other side. Closing your eyes, cannot be the solution. The traps are still set. Only the one who knows about them, can bypass them.

You will always succeed in this when you try to live with Me: not cramped and not dictated by the fear that you could fail, but in the deep trust and inviolable knowledge that I, your heavenly Father, love you; that you too may fall on your way and that I Am there to help you rise up - and that there is nothing, absolutely nothing that can separate you from Me. I will receive you with arms spread out and I will embrace you with a heart overflowing with joy when you have found your way home. Whenever that will be.

Do not allow negative thoughts about your brothers and sisters who are not yet in the light to dominate you, and who - because they do not understand it better yet - are still trying to make life difficult for you. They are your brothers and sisters, beings who, like you, were born of love and will find their way back to love. I am waiting for them with the same joy.

When My Words have fallen into your heart in the right way, you cannot help but meet them compassionately; not carelessly and frivolously, but with the desire that they too may soon come to knowledge and find a lighter and brighter existence. The best way to help them, is your prayer and your effort to involve Me in everything you do. From the fruits that result for you, they can see that there is another, far better way to live than the one they prefer at the moment. If and when they turn back, leave that to Me. Plant the seed, the harvest is My business.

I bless My creation with all that lives in it. And My blessing is like My Love, which now, in this moment, flows into all and everything.

Amen.

*) or Luzifers = Lightbringer, as she later called herself

***) Anyone who is not sure whether the books he reads or the spiritual teachings that interest him or to which he adheres are inspired by forces that speak of love, but do not mean the unconditional and selfless love of God, should try to get an answer to the following central question, whereby sometimes a simple inquiry is sufficient: Is the necessity of salvation through Jesus Christ spoken of or not? If not, the case is not acknowledged, which at the same time means that it has not existed. No case = no redemption, why should it be? Which forces are interested in such a teaching? The fact that, for example, the "Masters" also speak of Jesus should not deceive. They made him one of their own and called him Jesus Sananda, just as they took Mary into their ranks and called Mother Mary. In this way they came and still come to meet all those who, although they do not want to completely break with what they have learned in the church, but who no longer feel at home in their church or faith community; and who therefore seek answers in other ways that seem more satisfactory to them.
