

Heaven directs. A revelation of principle

20 May 2019

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, I have often pointed you to one of My divine laws, which reads: He who serves the law is served the law!

Understanding this principle is important for you if you really want to understand why it is as it is on your earth - but especially in your personal life. And it is crucial to what happens to you and the world in the future. It lets you see much of what has happened in the past in the right light. Because often you have shaken your heads, wavering in your faith and doubting Me and My justice; you have faced events that were incomprehensible to you. And even now you still do not understand many things.

I told you some time ago that it was already 5 past 12. Most people did not hear the bealing of the clockwork. They did not want to hear it. They do not take the signs of the times seriously and think that it will continue somehow. After all, they are still alive, and there is no lack of amusing passtimes.

Yes, it will continue somehow, because nothing I have created will ever be lost. The goal is set and will be achieved with absolute certainty: The homecoming of all those who have left the heavens, for whatever reason. In this respect, with a view to an eternal, immortal life in your indescribable glorious heavenly homeland, there is no cause for concern. But the question remains as to how the fate of My children of men and souls will be shaped on the way there, that is to say, on the road that still lies ahead of them, and which under circumstances can become very long and not very joyful for them.

It must be clear to each of you that in the years in which I worked through Jesus of Nazareth and taught people, I gave far more out of My divine wisdom, than the little that is written in your Scriptures. Moreover, the remaining fragments by translation-errors and falsifications no longer correspond to the original of My teaching, which has long been proven by your research and is also known to those responsible in your churches.

Although I adapted what I put in people's hearts, their consciousness and their understanding, this does not mean that I withheld fundamental truths from them. There was no question that I did not answer, there was no pain that I did not understand, there was no heart that I did not put all My Love into, when I recognised the longing in it. Or do you seriously believe that I, your God - who fully shone through the man Jesus - held Myself back, overlooked or did not hear something? Or concealed or refused something? I Am Love!

So the people at that time who were open to it, received and grasped much more than what is offered and given today to those who are dependent on the teachings and interpretations of their scribes. What I could not yet say to those who strove for a life according to My teachings on love, My Spirit brought in the following decades. He led all willing people with open hearts, deeper and deeper into the truth as it is to be read in your scriptures. There you will still find this word, but you do not understand it, you ignore it or disregard My promise or do not believe in it.

I have kept My Word. But My direct guidance through My teachings was a thorn in the side of the opposing forces; and so they finally managed to silence the talking God through refined whispers into the ego of people who lacked humility.

Today more than ever, the majority of humanity is like wanderers wandering without a destination. The signposts that have been set up, point in different directions. And even those on which it says "to heaven" have been set up in a twisted way, so that man cannot find his way back in this way. Therefore I have raised My Word for many centuries - strengthened in the last decades - in order to turn the signposts in the right direction and at the same time to clarify and deepen My simple teaching of love even more. Its essence is: love - and nothing else.

When I now ask you to take an honest look at the state of your world and not to ignore any area; and when I ask you whether you recognise or at least suspect a connection between the grievances that reign in all areas of the world and the embezzlement of My Truth and Wisdom; and when I also ask you not to ignore even the small and large discrepancies and inconsistencies in your lives: What do you answer?

And when you say: 'Yes, I know that', or at least 'it is probable', what results from it? A shrug? A helpless watching, how it goes on? Or a reflection on what you can change in your personal sphere? But fear as motivation for another behaviour is the worst counsellor. The desire, however, to find the roots of My simple teaching and to put them into practice out of love for Me, your neighbour and yourselves - and, as I have said so often, your honest effort is enough for Me - would be a wonderful foundation. So you can understand even better than before, and experience what My Word is all about: The one who serves the law is served by the law.

When you recognise no connection and no interaction between the uninterrupted transgressions against My commandment of love and the dark clouds that have long since grown on the horizon, then I ask you, yes, I admonish you, to open your eyes and face reality. What you think is safety, was and is in reality a pseudo-safety. It was and is the calm before the storm that deceives you. Remember your proverb that God's mills grind slowly.

They do this, among other things, because I very often give everyone - be it an individual or a small or large community - the opportunity to rethink their actions and correct them. In this way, the causes that have been set can be removed from the world, either in whole or in part, in good time, which means that their effects do not flow out at all or only to a small extent.

And another word you should reconsider: "Make no mistake. God does not let Himself mocked". No one can mock Me because I Am beyond such human outbursts. The meaning, however, hits the mark: No one can refuse the harvest that produces his own seed. My law works without error - and yet contains all My love and mercy.

So if you still find it difficult, or if it is still impossible for you to establish the recorded connection, I would ask you to take a little excursion with Me, using the logic of your heart.

The visible and invisible creation did not come into being "simply out of nowhere". It has an originator - Me, whom you call God - and it has been brought into being by an almighty power and will be received by it, which comes from Me alone. There is nothing, no place and no moment in the whole universe where I Am not! I Am eternal, I Am omnipresent, I Am supreme Consciousness - and I Am Love!

My creation rests on iron spiritual laws, just as human coexistence can only take place in an orderly manner when the worldly laws that you have given yourselves, are largely observed. To ensure this, you have not only the law, the legislative power, but also the executive power, the power to act, and the judiciary, the power to judge. If your laws are violated, the executive and judicial powers will be applied.

Because men could not - and still cannot - imagine that I do not need such laws, because love neither threatens nor punishes, they - in their lack of understanding and their limitations - have attributed to Me their own imperfect human behaviour. I have other ways to persuade My children to recognise and correct their mistakes. Time does not play a role in this process.

The teachings of your superiors regarding human freedom of will, are very different. Some reject or question the free will that I have given to every human being; others recognise it in principle, but this has led to a punishment by Me for a violation of My Will that has taken place in their own will.

They have not realize that I, in My Wisdom, also take other ways; and this while in your Scripture it is said that man sows what he reaps. Because this word is only interpreted into the future - that is, into a life after "death" - it can no longer serve to understand an overall situation. With this one-sided, false view, it has become completely meaningless and worthless if you ask and search for the meaning of life and the correct classification of events. The question "When did man sow what he reaps today?" does not arise at all, because there is no "before", that is, no life before the present, in your church teachings.

The so important little gear called "cause and effect", which is decisive for understanding, was taken out. The darkness had won a small stage victory.

The instrument that is at My disposal and that takes into account both My non-punishing love and the free will of My creatures, is founded in the law of cause and effect that has come into force conditionally through the Fall. But it is not a stick or a rod, but a part of My Grace, My Hand to My children, who will find their way back home in this way, without ever intervening in their free will or punishing them. It is an instrument of My love. That it is not seen and understood by many in this way, is due to a completely wrong interpretation, which is often believed and advocated even by those who have already acquired spiritual knowledge. It is misinterpreted so that it always appears as something negative and threatening. The opposite is the case.

To correct this erroneous opinion, is the meaning of My present word of revelation. I want to make it clear to you that My law of sowing and reaping is there and serves to solve your problems and difficulties and not to make life difficult for you. I want to prepare the way for you with this, if you give heaven the opportunity. I will and still will level with your 'yes' many things that lie ahead of you now as a mountain full of worries and uncertainties. For My Law does not hover over you as a sword; on the contrary, it waits patiently for it to show and hand over to you the harvest of the good seed that has accumulated and continues to accumulate as a result of your efforts. This then serves as an ever more solid foundation for your future thinking and acting.

Since I live in everyone, there is not a moment of your earthly and of course your eternal life, in which I am not omnipresent in every creature. If this were not so, I would not be the life in you, then you would not be.

Everyone who lives outside his eternal home of light has his guardian angel invisibly at his side, but also other helpers and teachers, if his task or the respective situation, requires it. To express it in your own language, you are constantly on the 'celestial radar screen'. It is impossible that there can ever be a moment when you are alone or even 'lost', or when heaven is not safe where you are and does not know what you are thinking and doing.

But contrary to what you do in some regimes, heaven is not about 'watching you'. On the contrary, everything is designed to give maximum help and assistance to every person and soul.

But therefore do not worry about how and what heaven thinks about your small and big misdemeanours, and do not develop feelings of guilt. Whatever a person does, there will never be a condemnation by your spiritual companions. They all have fully developed My spiritual principle, which also you should strive for. It reads: I hear, look and know everything; but whatever it may be, I love you without ifs and buts!

If you believe this and also that I have infinite possibilities to lead a child, then the next step - using the logic of the heart - comes by itself. It says that 'heaven has taken over the direction of your life'. From the moment you entered the realms outside the heavens. This principle applies to everyone!

Are you aware of the significance of this statement, this fact? Do you realize that you are being "taken care of", as long as you are ready to serve the law? For the Law that embodies My Love, serves everyone who is ready to follow the commandments of My Law of Love at all times, and without error.

In order to make clear to you what this means, how it can literally "turn your life upside down" in the positive sense, I give you an image.

I compare your decision to incarnate in order to learn and develop, with the journey to a foreign country. Perhaps you have decided to be some kind of development-worker; perhaps you are an expedition-participant; perhaps you just want to gain experience - whatever it is: if your incarnation is carried by the desire to progress on the way to your heavenly home, you act in My Will!

If you have incarnated in your own will, if selfish reasons have driven you to a new life on earth, or if you have simply followed the "spirit of the time" without the motivation of a spiritual development, then you are not without spiritual accompaniment that wants to help you and protect you; but the possibilities that it's supporting and admonishing impulses are perceived and implemented by you, are possibly strongly restricted. The decisive direction is then led by other forces, and you are still strongly involved in the educational side of the law of cause and effect.

If, however, you have understood in your life that the purpose is to strive for the good and the loving, then you are like a development-worker who has the best prerequisites to fulfil his self-chosen mission. He does this by working on his own development - which has nothing to do with egoism - in order to be able to help others and be a role model according to his spiritual strengthening.

Do you believe that heaven does not give such a person, whether young or old, initial effort or already a little tested, all the help he needs? This starts with carefully preparing an incarnation together with the Protective Spirit. In addition, the necessary equipment for the incarnation is provided, strengths are weighed against weaknesses and the first course is set. All this happens in the invisible, and yet at birth a being enters the world who builds on Me, and on whom I also build, because it wants to do it's part to make it a little brighter in the world.

Man, even if still small in form, carries everything within himself, that he needs in order to be able to successfully complete his walk through matter in the sense of a spiritual maturation. He is equipped like an expedition-participant. Does he have to worry about the necessary supply? Remember what I told you about the radar screen. Heaven knows about every single one. He knows what everyone needs, and He provides everything before they ask for it. For love is concerned that it's "representatives" enter enemy territory well-equipped.

This event is comparable to a supply organization that works flawlessly and can only be disturbed or interrupted by the one for whom the supply is intended. The supply cannot then be delivered as usual and as desired, if there is an action that does not correspond to the Love Commandment. Delivery becomes even more difficult, to impossible - remember that the same attracts the same and the unequal repels - if wrong behaviour is not practiced only once or only for a short time. If it is shown repeatedly against better knowledge, and if it has perhaps already become a habit that is difficult to break, the flow of the strengthening and healing energies can be blocked.

Then the person no longer understands anything, he begins to doubt, feels left alone and goes his way only more routinely. His heart is no longer there. The incarnation threatens to become an earth journey, which ends with the dreaded and inevitable "death". When awakening on the side beyond the veil, the soul gradually recognises what would have been possible if ....

If man, on the other hand, is willing to fill My commandment with life, and if he expresses this in his behaviour in everyday life, he himself creates the conditions for everything to proceed in a much more orderly, uncomplicated and easier way. Then I Am Truly the great navigator, for whom things are possible because of your efforts, which you call "miracles". You do this often and whenever you don't know that threads have been pulled invisibly in the background. All of a sudden, everything fits together: Stones are cleared out of the way, disputes are ended, a more harmonious togetherness begins, worries fade away, help unexpectedly comes in, stressful and disease-causing attachments to old habits can be dissolved, positive feelings and thoughts replace negative ones, your life-motor no longer stutters and much, much more.

What has happened? Through your 'yes' you have given heaven the opportunity to take over the direction of your life, because you have stepped out of the command of your ego-direction. With this you have begun to sow another seed in the field of your life, in addition to your good seeds so far, which cannot be valued highly enough. And the law of cause and effect - which is your friend and not your enemy - begins - figuratively - to grow the most beautiful flowers in your garden, while the weeds, seemingly by themselves, become less and less.

Once you look back at your life you will see the truth in My words and in many situations you will find confirmed what influence the principle of sowing and reaping has already had in your existence.

I once said that I am not an accountant, so I do not "small-mindedly and meticulously" set one off against the other. As soon as I see an effort, an honest intention, which goes beyond a quickly-spoken prayer "Do this please", and which is based on the desire for a change of character in the sense of love, positive forces enter the plan.

Depending on what is at stake, preparations have to be made in the spiritual, which then have an effect in the material, in your environment. So much cannot become immediately visible; for you do not live alone in a vacuum, but are connected with innumerable people and souls and also with events of the past.

But I tell you, no request for a change that aims at coming closer to Me, will ever be ignored or rejected. And not only that: it is worked on "with priority" so to speak. Everything that is necessary, is initiated at the moment when such a call reaches My Heart. How it then continues, depends - among other things - also on your behaviour, on the seriousness with which you go about 'inner work'. By this I mean your part in this work, because I take over the greater part of it anyway.

But once "giddy-up" and once "hup", that, with all love, will not get you off the ground.

I have set you the great framework within which all events in the world take place, both in the great world politics that determine the destiny of peoples and in your personal lives. Within this framework, everyone has every freedom to do and leave what he wants.

However, he cannot avoid the consequences of his actions. Not even in thousands of years. Therefore the mechanism of cause and effect can only be understood correctly when it is acknowledged that there is usually not only one life, but that the soul incarnates itself - in free decision - several times.

My guidance ensures that nothing happens to those people who allow themselves to be led because they live largely in the law that seriously damages their soul. This applies more or less also to the exterior, whereby most souls were aware before their incarnation that they were entering the domain of darkness and that they had to accept inconveniences, discomforts and difficulties. But their desire to make progress or to contribute to the illumination of the heavy and dark atmosphere of the earth, has taken the risk. It is reduced by Me to the necessary learning experiences, when these people go hand in hand with Me.

To speak in a picture: Lightning, thunder, rain and storm are not always avoidable, and yet I know how to guide mine in such a way that they may get wet - which often cannot be prevented - but that they nevertheless come home unharmed.

For all those of My children who worry unfoundedly: The good news in My Message is that no one can get lost because they cannot fall out of the "Creation System". In addition: That there is no death and no end, and that all will return home. And that there is no injustice in Me that gives one person a good and another a bad existence. Everyone has it in his hands at all times to give his life a different direction that points "to heaven". I help him because My love and mercy meet everyone who calls Me.

The less good news for all who want to live in self-will, which My Love does not deny them: it will not succeed in the long run; but you have the freedom to try it nevertheless. Each one without exception belongs to the great heavenly community in which selfless giving, loving togetherness and indescribable happiness, reign in the light. As long as he is outside this community, he is separated from it; he is isolated, even if he does not yet find it disturbing and painful. But the longing in him that burns in the spark of life that also receives him, will ensure that he also finds his way back into unity.

Since heaven – as the higher-ranking - always directs, which no one can take out of his hand, this will happen. For it is My will!

Amen
