

Harmony is the basis of all life

22 August 2020

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My beloved sons and daughters, that which you are referring to by the term "life" is but a faint reflection of actual life. Most of My human children do not really live; they more or less vegetate in themselves, which means: they do not know the reason for their existence. And because of this ignorance they also cannot recognize the innumerable possibilities and therefore also cannot implement them, which their incarnation offers them to promote their spiritual maturing process. As a substitute they therefore gladly accept the offers presented to them by My and their adversary. Thus they spend a large part of their life-energy, which they receive exclusively from Me, on satisfying their physical needs and those of their ego. But this can never satisfy them or even make them happy, because in this way a phantom is chased. Because the basket in which happiness is supposedly contained, is hung higher and higher.

If they ask for meaning and the answer is found at all - which is rarely the case - the prerequisites for making lasting changes are often missing. The strength and the will are often no longer sufficient to get out of the deep tracks dug by the "cart of life". Then you have bound yourselves and made a habit of many a thing that determines your behavior. Your way of thinking and acting is no longer necessarily subject to your free decision, even if it seems so.

If this is the case, then the satanic forces have managed to let an incarnation begun with good intentions, to not seldom run into nothing, or at least to make a desired, purposeful development more difficult. Darkness has the free will to be allowed to influence everyone at any time; and you have the free will to successfully oppose with your 'no' to it, provided you recognize the finely woven constructs of lies, of which I again and again warn you. But the majority of My human children do not notice the cleverly woven nets. They get caught up in them, become dependent and can then be manipulated.

The way that I as Jesus of Nazareth have shown people is the solution to get out of this trap - which resembles a hamster-wheel, as you call it -*). It is the only way to find the way to real life, which is a continuous exchange of constructive, positive energy, a mutual fertilization. Just look into nature and you can see how everything is connected, complementary, communicating with each other. Life is communication - ideally with Me - the Source of all existence, and it is a constant giving and taking. If communication is suppressed, whether for pretended or actually necessary reasons, a soul-loneliness gradually begins. Who would want that?

Whoever gives in the spirit of selfless love, will receive - and will do so to a far greater extent and with a far better "quality" than the pretended sham offers of darkness. For what it promises and delivers has it's price, even if it is not mentioned. The invoice will be presented to you sooner or later. In a less bad case, it will be paid for with the stagnation of your soul, when you change sides in your physical demise and re-enter the ethereal worlds.

But it can also become much worse when for example already during your lifetime suffering and trouble befalls you, and you helplessly face such and similar strokes of fate because you have not learned to develop a corresponding strength of soul with My help. A regression in your spiritual development is then not seldom the result because an unhappy life often goes along with the loss of faith in Me and My love. When you then enter the hereafter, you are attracted by those areas where the same or similar conditions prevail as those that correspond to your last feeling and action.

Also there a soul is not helpless and abandoned but it has to remember Me, ask Me for help and be prepared to be led on a lighter path. This will not always be easy because the soul lives in a world, of it's own emotions and thoughts. It lives - here also the term "vegetate" would often be more appropriate - in the circumstances and under the influences that it previously considered to be right, practiced and thereby created it him/herself. This often makes it difficult for it's spiritual helpers to approach and instruct it at all.

*

Love - My universal energy - can flow to an increased degree everywhere where the conditions for it are met. If this is not the case, then it is reduced to a life-sustaining minimum. It can also be found in the demons of the deepest astral regions, to whom I do not deny this minimum, because that would mean it's immediate end. But I do not destroy what I have created and love.

Therefore, the better the conditions for the flowing of My love-energy are, the more abundantly it can radiate and be received by everyone who follows it's commandment: namely, to strive to love selflessly and unconditionally. Where My commandment of love for God and neighbor is hardly or not at all observed and lived, there is a lack of energy with the consequence that negative forces gain the upper hand. In this way, the effects increasingly push to the surface. At the same time, a new, bad seed is sown, and the account of the bad harvest gains more and more weight.

This principle is valid in all out-of-home areas. It also means that what happens on national level in the case of a lack of life-energy - that is, energy of love - happens in the same way in a human body-cell. As in the big, so in the small. A system that is in harmony with the great, eternal Spirit is "healthy" in every respect, and it's individual parts fulfill the task assigned to them without any problems. As soon as there is a reduction of energy, ailments and diseases appear "on a small scale". "On a large scale" there are serious disturbances of the living-space and the coexistence of people.

Then parasites of all kinds nest in both the material and the spiritual, which are wrongly regarded as the cause of the disaster. But they are only the result of thinking and acting against My law and not the real cause, which is again and again mistaken in ignorance or because of not wanting to know. They are therefore also not the real cause of disharmonies of any kind.

When this happens - and your time teaches you the truth of My words - then the violent conflicts increase, accidents and disasters pile up, supply shortages occur and often the political and economic systems and social standards collapse. This will create the conditions on which to build further, but not in a positive sense. Or do you believe that the destructive forces and their human henchmen will stop their activities and be satisfied with "small stage victories"? Because in reality, measured by the goals they have been preparing for a long time, there are no more than mini-victories that underlie their planning.

May he who does not believe My words, remember the intentions of the counter-forces, which have caused the fall or the downfall of angels through their resistance against My love-commandment. There has not yet been a turnaround of these apostates. Admittedly, they had to realize that their original plan to build up their own creation cannot succeed; but out of this "insight" no remorse and no giving up of their efforts has arisen, but by summoning up all their strength, they still try to then at least bring about chaos and destruction.

A large part of their "energy suppliers" is then indeed lost to them as human beings; but their souls, many of which go to the astral realms after physical death - have to go because they do not have a higher vibration due to lack of development - remain with them as dependants. In this way, they expand their satanic dominion, but without knowing that all their efforts can never be more than an attempt to maintain their power. For My laws are not to be undermined.

Without the knowledge of these spiritual backgrounds, man then speaks of so-called coincidence when situations occur for which he cannot find an explanation. Or he tries to bring about solutions that make the whole situation even worse, if or because "the devil and Beelzebub" is to be cast out. Not infrequently hope and faith are thrown overboard, and in ignorance I am accused because I have allowed My Law to cleanse and compensate.

Think carefully, My sons and daughters, before you follow counsellors and rulers who only seek external solutions; if you trust "superiors" who only carry My name in their mouth or have written it on their shield, and who do not know the spiritual law of sowing and reaping or do not apply it to themselves and their actions. Take care that you, as far as it is already possible for you, remain in love so that you do not fall into the pit of those who have dug themselves under the influence of the other side.

The pits are now not as well camouflaged as they were supposed to be and worked in the beginning, although the sophistication still beats everything you can imagine. But more and more cracks are appearing, which become visible to those who are willing to ask many questions. My law of cause and effect, in contrast to all the efforts of the other side, works flawlessly and ensures that nothing remains hidden in the long run.

See to it that the rude awakening does not begin for you then.

If I would comply with your requests to reveal details about the time ahead of you, it would be tantamount to a betrayal of those who make the planning and make the preparations with the aim of taking over power. But I betray no-one, ever! Because all are My children, and not one of them will I ever release from My heart, no matter how much it stands against Me. In every creature is My life, and I, who Am the Life Myself, will not harm My own life.

But sooner or later their fate - more aptly still: their "Mach-sal" - will catch up with them and take off their mask, no matter how much they try to defend themselves. I'm going another way, the way of love. At the end I stand with open arms to finally receive also the last of the fallen. It is the way that teaches you at the same time to see through the wiles of your dark counterpart. This requires that you learn not to just look at the surface, but to go deeper with a consciousness that opens up more and more through loving interaction. You are confronted with the not easy task of looking, listening, perhaps even be scared, but still staying within yourself and not leaving the path of love.

*

You have incarnated into a time that is not easy. If you believed the advice of your guardian angel, you knew roughly what you were getting into. You will not have been shown or told anything more precise. On the one hand not because no spiritual helper, who acts on My behalf, will influence his neighbor to do this or that or not to do this or that. He will recommend, nothing more. For another, because nothing is predetermined, but everyone has the free will to decide one way or another. In this way he can give his existence weights that he determines himself, and thus take a direction in his life that is entirely his own.

Your time offers you abundant opportunity to work on the maturation of your soul consciously and with My help. And your soul will also desire this, as far as this was the reason for your incarnation.

Because people need role models who give them guidelines for their lives and, if possible, exemplify them, spiritual beings have at all times gone to earth both from the heavens and from areas close to the heavens, to whom the spiritual progress of their earthly brothers and sisters was important. After the desired breakthrough in the spiritual could not be achieved, I decided to incarnate Myself**). The aspect of My love went "into the flesh" in Jesus of Nazareth.

I remind you that I Am the Source of all existence, which means: everything that is comes from My love, which naturally and primarily also concerns all spiritual creatures. That I incarnated on earth for good reason gives the impression to many who do not understand My all-inclusive greatness, power and love, that I had exclusively had the well-being of My earthly children in mind. I am the Giver of eternal life to all, no matter how far developed they are and where they are at present: on earth, on other stars in systems near or far away, in the innumerable areas that serve the souls as places of residence and development, or in the heavens. My love, which sustains all of them for eternity, applies to all in the same way.

The earth as the lowest point of the Fall is at the same time the basis for the reintegration of the Fall-beings and serves as a platform for the return of all beings who have left the heavens. This is where redemption took place, and through this, the power of darkness was finally broken. Starting from the earth, the purification of every soul and the transformation of all material into the spiritual should and will take place, similar to a "domino effect" that cannot be stopped. It began with My incarnation and ends when all My children have returned home.

If you adopt this universal, inclusive view, how should it be necessary or possible that I prefer or exclude this or that group of people? Or that I have established rules and decrees that do not apply equally to all and cannot be obeyed by all? Use your intellect; you are great and grown-up sons and daughters of My Love!

This small consideration alone must make clear to everyone who is of good will that I did not establish a church into which all must enter in order to be able to enter the Kingdom of Heaven; and that I also did not establish a religion whose contents of faith all must internalize and whose rites all must practice. I Am the One, the Universal Spirit: boundless, timeless, incomprehensible, there for all in the same way, because I live in everyone and love everyone without restriction.

What I brought to the people as a guideline was one single commandment. It purifies the human character, lightens the soul and prepares it already in its lifetimes for its way home, which it begins when it leaves the mortal, material shell. I taught love, the Divine power that sets free and brings back into harmony everything that has fallen out of harmony because of self-will.

What kind of name you give yourselves as My successors is secondary<sup>***</sup>). If you make a sincere effort, then you are "followers and fulfillers of the commandment of love"; then call yourselves as you wish, if at all. Something other than learning and maturing through love does not count anyway. To live them is the only way that all My human and soul-children can go, regardless of where they are at present. Because My redemption, even if I repeat Myself, was for all!

The man Jesus was also subject to the restrictions and hardships that accompany every incarnation. But soon it was clear to Him which Spirit dwelt in Him. Therefore, among other things, your Scripture tells that the boy Jesus taught in the temple, and that among his listeners were also scribes. Already in His early childhood, He was intellectually far superior to them with the wisdom of His heart.

When he spoke of the Father and prayed accordingly, He did so to make clear to people the power of love to which they could turn in prayer. Everything else would have been too abstract and hardly understandable. A "real" prayer takes place within; the formulation through words serves only as an aid to express feelings. When prayer comes from the heart, man, knowing that he is the creature of a much greater authority, always turns to the source from which he came.

But the Source, the only one that exists, is life itself, which bubbles out of Me unceasingly for all times. It is the "Holy Life" par excellence. In its impersonal form, it is the eternally radiating power of Love. In its personal form I meet you in the form of a father or your brother Jesus - but also in every other form - which makes it easier for you to recognize Love in Me.

As Jesus I did not pray to Myself. Nor did I pray or beg, as it is often the case among you people. I gave My will as man into the will of Divine Love, which had taken up residence in Me. In this way My Spirit could fully penetrate the man Jesus. There was - so to speak - nothing more between Me as God and man, who fulfilled My will.

The Source of all life shone through all the material cells of man and had completely illuminated all the immaterial cells of His soul. This enabled him to override the laws of physics that apply on earth and to perform "miracles"; not least to show man that spirit dominates matter and not vice versa.

The man Jesus lived through the most difficult hours when it became clear that for the redemption of all people and all fallen souls it was inevitable that the last step of unconditional surrender, the crucifixion, should also be carried out. Admittedly, the man Jesus would have easily been able to escape His enemies or render them harmless because of His spiritual potential. But then the darkness would have won the day and would have been able to boast that it had made Love give up its principles. It could have presented itself as the stronger force.

It was different, as you know.

Every person represents a unity of body, soul and spirit. That was no different with Me when I entered matter. Thereby the Spirit represents eternal, indestructible life and the soul the link - therefore the connection - between Spirit and man. A soul that incarnates for the second time is already burdened with its mistakes and weaknesses of the past. These burdens represent a certain "energetic heaviness".

When a spirit-being incarnates directly from the heavens, it passes through the various spheres from very ethereal to very dense. It then brings a more or less heavy burden into its earthly body, which must be transformed through a life according to the commandment of love. But these burdens were not caused by an unlawful behavior but were taken up voluntarily because otherwise it would not have been possible for the soul to remain in matter at all. If the shadows of the soul are processed by man and wholly or partially lightened or dissolved, then with his personal burden, the total guilt of mankind - which was caused by the fall and subsequent unlawful behaviour of countless people - is also reduced.

Also I had to overcome many a thing that I had loaded upon Me. This was important for the sole reason that I could be an example through My life. Otherwise the objection could have come very quickly that I would have spoken well, because because of My strength of soul the Inner Work would have been easy for Me without struggle and overcoming.

But apart from My function as an example I had taken on another, much bigger and more decisive task: To initiate the repatriation of all My children. This succeeded and since then, nothing has been the same as it was before. What turned out well were the conditions for the return home of all. This became possible among other things through the Redeemer-spark which I gave you. At the same time, however, darkness also intensified its attacks and systematically set about darkening the path that now points to heaven or by making it appear as not possible.

For 2,000 years this intensified conflict has been taking place. In many revelations I have enlightened you about details and backgrounds. And again and again I have put the emphasis on pointing out to you My help, which you need for the accomplishment of your everyday tasks when you want to enter and go the way of selfless love. I am doing this again today because I see the need many people have to keep looking hopefully and positively into the future.

If you had a faithful and very trusted person who would help you with a heavy work at any time, immediately and without any reservation, as soon as you asked him to: wouldn't that be a wonderful thing? Would you not immediately accept his help because you are not able to do the job on your own?

Figuratively speaking I do not only stand before you since today and ask you desperately to accept My help. Love wants to make you strong and free. It wants to give you the certainty which you need so urgently in the coming time: that there is no reason to flee into resignation or to let fears determine your life. Even if it will not be easy, you are infinitely much better off with Me at your side than when you close your eyes and ears because you do not want to be disturbed.

What more can I do than to reach out My hand to you and lead you to the Source that as the Holy Life is bubbling up in you since eternities, without you having consciously paid attention to it until now? Because of the free will you have, My outstretched hand cannot be more than an offer. If you accept it and change your life with Me step by step in those aspects that need to be changed in the sense of love, then you will experience what it means to have increasing flow and strengthening of My Love power. Then harmony will determine your life to which every one of My children is entitled. Because harmony - I have explained - moves into every small or large "system" when the source from which the system is fed, is to an increasingly greater extent My Divine Love.

Be blessed, My sons and daughters, and become or be more aware that it is more important than ever to develop a consciousness that sees through the machinations of the counter-forces, and to react accordingly. To react correctly, which means: not to judge - which is or will not be an easy task.

Amen.

*) Among others in great detail in the revelation "How you find protection and security" of 13. 7. 2020

**) Of course, everyone is free to believe in a "Son" of God who went to earth to accomplish salvation. But it is interesting to note that Jewish Christianity did not know a division into three parts into a triune God, consisting of Father, Son and Spirit (Trinity). The Trinity has no biblical foundation, but is rather a dogma of the Catholic Church and is based on the Athanasian creed. The doctrine of the Trinity, after centuries of controversy, was established as a dogma at the 11th Synod of Toledo in 675 and confirmed at the 4th Lateran Council in 1215. Since then it has been obligatory for all Catholics to believe.

***) The term "Christian" or "Christians" did not exist at the time of Jesus and also in the following years and decades. His followers were called "The Nazarene Sect". And from "https://www.katholisch.de/artikel/13541-wie-die-christen-zu-ihrem-namen-kamen" (How the Christians came to be named) : "...Since the designation remains rare until the middle of the 2nd century, the assumption suggests itself that the followers of Jesus Christ were first called Christians from the outside before they called themselves that way ... The name was only later adopted as a suitable self-designation and then quickly established itself."
