

No incarnation without a return-ticket

8 August 2020

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My sons and daughters, I hear some of you asking, "Why do the revelations always contain explanations and background information? Is it not enough to simply hear about love?"

Whoever makes an effort to implement My love-commandment in his everyday life, and whoever succeeds in this better and better with My help, becomes so strong in his inner being that he sees through the approach of the negative forces more and more because of his increased sensitivity. Because lived love not only promotes your healing and lets not only your soul-light grow, it also trains your consciousness. In this way you are able to recognize the cleverly set traps of the opposite side in most cases.

Whereby, when I speak of negative forces, both the personified Fall-beings and the "impersonal" energy-fields consciously created by them are meant, which permeate the whole material cosmos. Nevertheless, many people have little or no understanding of the terms darkness, obscurity or counter-forces. They dismiss the work of the fallen spirit-beings as fairy tales or consider everything connected with the term "devil" to be exaggerated or abstract.

Who still lives more or less his humanity and does not deal with spiritual questions can be seduced and manipulated in many ways, even if he is of good will. Then it often becomes very difficult to distinguish a real truth from an illusory truth. But so that you learn this, I give you help, which serves to be able to go your way to and with Me more easily and not so often have to face questions which you yourselves - still - cannot answer. You are then not dependent on having to believe what is presented to you unchecked, but you are able to think on your own responsibility and independently.

This has always been an important prerequisite for not being led astray. Just think of the no longer original faithful reproduction of My teaching, which I brought as Jesus of Nazareth. The people - except for the few who were thinking - were "easy prey" for the other side, especially when working with fear. Today, when the means of manipulation and seduction by the opposing forces have been developed to perfection, being able to look deeper and listen better, is more important than ever.

That you live, superficially seen, in a relatively peaceful time, that most of you are not so badly off financially, that you are hungry, that you can fulfil many wishes and so much more - this has lulled you into a false sense of security. The darkness has never given up its fight against Me and all who follow Me. On the contrary it has increased its efforts and what you now experience, is heading for a temporary climax. Can it really be the easier solution, not to know about it and not to want to protect yourself from it?

Nothing has changed in the goal of darkness to prevent the return of all fallen spirits. The ignorance of the people makes it easy for them to keep the many - in the sense of love - little developed souls in their sphere of power. Because the knowledge about it that life on earth serves to let the soul mature through the observance of the love-commandment - because this is decisive for its further life in the hereafter - was successfully suppressed. Therefore the fact is widely unknown that a spiritual being enters a human body at birth due to its own decision. Likewise, hardly anyone knows that every soul always has a "return ticket in its luggage" which inevitably brings it back to the ethereal worlds, where its life then continues. So there is no death as you see or know it. An incarnation on earth is as much a part of your eternal life as is the usually longer stay between two incarnations in the hereafter.

Your true life takes place - I repeat Myself for the sake of importance - beyond matter. What you perceive here as life is only a part of your eternal existence, no more than a snapshot, a copy of your real life. The purpose is to prepare you for your existence in the ethereal worlds, and that depends on how you live here.

All this has little to do with faith in Me, especially not when it is a dead faith where the implementation of My love-commandment is not in the first place. In order to prevent this truth, every effort had to be made that you here behave in such a way that when you enter the hereafter - in the process which you call death - you are still bound to your wishes and ideas and are therefore not able to reach the light-worlds.

Whether further incarnations occur, which is often the case, therefore depends on how far the soul is developed in a person. When it detaches itself from the body again at death, it is attracted by the worlds that correspond to its nature, its spiritual potency, which it created itself during its lifetime and is thus responsible for itself. If it has already attained a higher radiance, an expanded consciousness, then it goes into spheres with such a high vibration that it can no longer be reached by the darkness. With that, it is finally lost for the other side.

In this way the dark dominion becomes weaker and weaker: Namely through men who strive to live love and whose soul-power has increased through this; who have become light and strong and can now be guided in the worlds beyond by their guardian angels and many spiritual helpers. So all My children, also the fallen ones, return to their heavenly homeland step by step, and the extra-heavenly areas formed by the Fall dissolve little by little - a process that cannot be measured in time with your words. It represents the return to the heavens and thus the end of all evil.

I have reminded you of this to make clear to you the connection that exists between the action of satanic forces and the disaster and discord in your world. What has been happening on earth for many thousands of years cannot be classified by those who want to look a little deeper without this knowledge. That is why it is so important for you to know spiritual laws, to accept them and make them the basis of your thinking and your decisions. Whoever is willing to do so, the truth will easily reveal itself to him. Who, for whatever reason, closes his eyes to it, he remains ignorant, gets into danger to reject Me and harms himself.

With My incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth I pursued the intention to give all people and souls additional energy - the so-called Christ-spark - as a power that facilitates your return to the Father's house. I put this intention into action; since then My walk of sacrifice represents the redemption of all because it was and is now possible for everyone to return home. From the very beginning, it was the endeavour of the opposing forces to prevent this act for the reasons described above. They recognized the danger which threatened them and their power through Me, Love. What options did they have?

*

At this point, something comes into play that hardly anyone considers when talking about influencing people. Everything that is not solid has its home in the ethereal, in what is invisible to you. If something is to be effected in the material world, the "detour" must be taken via spiritual-energetic impulses, which are transmitted to the person in order to evoke the desired reaction in him. So your guardian angel can - as you put it - "sing a song about it", how many of his impulses and nudges are not perceived or noticed, because for example your mental antennas are aligned differently.

It is therefore always necessary, for good or evil, to find people for the planned intention who are receptive to what is given to them. This means that it is always the ethereal forces that influence unnoticed and, if it is something reprehensible, evil, immoral, or against the commandment of love, they also manipulate it. In the incitement to demand My death on Golgotha on the cross, this approach worked just as well as in the attempt to nip the young movement in the bud by persecuting the first Christians.

It was indeed people who acted in a correspondingly lying or violent manner; but it was always also the forces of darkness who could help themselves to these people because of their weaknesses of character. This approach, which has proved to be very effective, has not changed until today.

If you had the same devilish intentions, would you proceed differently? It does not promise any success, for example with small, nameless brothers or sisters in pastoral care, who are there for their fellow men with a neighbour-loving heart, to make an attempt to deceive humanity. The same applies to the political, economic and social sectors. Everyone who "understands his business" will target the leaders, i.e. those who can move and bring about something in his sense, those who have influence and power to implement corresponding ideas and guidelines of the opposite side.

In short, darkness needs people to do the work for it on earth. This may be sobering for many. But would it help and protect you to turn a blind eye to reality and to what has long been prepared in well-coordinated phases? If you are courageous, you will find in My words the answer to many questions that have remained unanswered. Many will not like it and will therefore not accept it.

A further attempt was made with the falsification of My teaching, for which again men were needed who - often ignorantly, unintentionally and without malice - were at the service of the opposite side. Falsification itself already had serious consequences; however, it was only a further step towards a much larger goal: the destruction of your living space - which then offers the souls willing to learn, only a limited possibility to incarnate on the "Training Center Earth".

In the implementation of this intention, people's morally superior behavior could only be a hindrance. A watered-down doctrine resulting in the absence of much of the truth was supposed to lead them - and has led them - to follow a path where more and more negative causes have been set. More and more evil seeds were sown, and hardly anyone was able to recognize an injustice or do anything about it.

A too wrongful idea of Me and My love had settled in the subconscious of the people; and so a childlike humble, self-questioning behavior, which corresponds to My love-commandment, had fallen into oblivion. Since at the same time the knowledge about the so important law of sowing and reaping was suppressed, the darkness had an easy time after these preparations:

Now they could do as they pleased, even giving their actions a Christian touch in the worst excesses, but in any case blurring the sense of good and evil. Once a person had been seduced into even halfway godless behaviour, it was easier to influence him in the next incarnation; for it was possible to build on the character-weaknesses which had arisen in the previous life and which were brought to a new incarnation, provided that there had not been a serious insight and conversion in the hereafter.

Also the question about the harvest of a seed that is unlawful in the sense of love, which has been sown over thousands of years, was no longer asked by people. As an answer to the question of "Why?" chance was introduced, because the knowledge that everything has its spiritual cause, was no longer present. And the willingness to think about every event, also and especially in the personal sphere, no longer had any place in a world where size, prestige, power and money were and are all that mattered. Moreover, the superficialities and distractions of all kinds have now taken a place that has banished the necessity of any questioning or follow-up to the furthest corner of reflection, especially since there is a danger of being laughed at with corresponding considerations.

That is the bottom-line. But whatever is attempted from an ignorant side to prevent the looming harvest: no power in the world can override My laws, which also include the principle of cause and effect!

*

Many of you will not believe My words. You have free will. But even then when you do not believe Me, I will not get you to believe through proofs because I will not stop the ability of independent thinking in you by Me preempting you. On the contrary: My intention is to educate you to be attentive sons and daughters of My love, who see through the moves of darkness, behave accordingly and at the same time learn to love also their so-called enemies. Only then will you be able to make your own decisions and be a real help to your neighbor.

An enlightenment as I am giving it to you now was not necessary in My time, that is to say two thousand years ago, because the ideological traps as they are set up today, did not exist then. When I spoke of the fact that it is considered the highest form of love to also love one's enemies, then primarily those people were meant who harm others in body and life and rob their belongings. The threat through your invisible enemies, which is hardly believed in because it is not perceived, has meanwhile taken on another, much more dangerous form than a mere external danger; furthermore My and your opponent is today able to reach an innumerable number of unenlightened people worldwide because of technical means.

An enemy who manipulates you and thus harms your spiritual development without you noticing it is a far more dangerous opponent than someone who, for example, only harms you materially. He starts in advance because he knows that this will create the conditions for much greater damage in the future. In doing so, as at all times, he uses the means of fear and uncertainty. And so he often manages to be seen as and called the saviour, when in reality he is the one who brought the frightened people into this situation in the first place.

On your way to Me, you will anyway learn in the otherworldly areas to be able to distinguish the chaff from the wheat. So why do you not want to start with it already here on earth? It would save you many problems and difficulties and would also increase your understanding of how I work in your world and in everyone and is a protection and shield to him who entrusts himself to Me. In My previous revelation I spoke about this at length. *)

Not for nothing do I teach you the logic of the heart, which includes the art of questioning. It can save you from thinking that an apparently good intention is a really good intention. If you use them again and again, you will be reasonably armed against the many obscure tricks the dark works with by influencing its human minions.

I take you with Me on a small train of thought, which reflections can also be a help in many everyday-situations:

Suppose you have a goal in mind that you want to achieve. A direct and immediate achievement of your goal is in the least cases possible. It may require some or many preparations to realize what you have set out to do. A good planner will ask himself the question which conditions must first be created in order for the plan to be successful. He will determine the main conditions and give priority to one of them. The next step will be to find out by "reverse thinking" what has to be initiated or what has to be present before, what he can build on to create the desired preconditions. And so on ...

Just take a planned construction-project as an example, then you know what I mean. Do you believe - and here I ask you to use your intellect - that the other side proceeds differently? That with the superior intelligence that is its own, it simply starts to disturb, destroy, seduce or manipulate here and there? Just like that, without a plan?

If you don't think it's possible that they're proceeding haphazardly, then you're well on your way to understanding the game. And not only that, then you also recognize in all My revelations the incomparable help, which I give to mankind. Because with all its sophistication, darkness can still never prevent the protection which I give to those who ask Me for it - and that not only with words, but through the implementation of My love-teaching in their everyday life.

*

Now that you know that there is no incarnation without a return-ticket, you could take a closer look at your life and your behavior. On the one hand, this knowledge brings a great relief, because it removes all doubts and uncertainties about life after death: There is no death, your life lasts forever! On the other hand the question arises to which place your return-ticket will take you? Will it be the place you have been dreaming of? The one you've been looking forward to? Or will there be areas that do not quite correspond to your ideas, perhaps making you dissatisfied or even unhappy because everything is so completely different from what you have been taught so far; including the misconception that with death everything is over and done with?

One thing is, as you put it, as certain "as the Amen in the church": The return-ticket is mandatory. 'When', is with good reason beyond your knowledge. This ignorance is used by the darkness to suppress this process of passing over. But that will not be of any use to anyone. On the contrary, it will harm him, because he will stand in complete surprise before a situation of which nobody has made him aware of. In the very worst case the great trembling will come; if it is less bad, a thousand question marks will arise and a lack of understanding of why and in what form life now goes on.

But in any case your guardian angel and others of your spiritual friends will be available to guide you as far as they are able to. They will try to enlighten you, but they will only succeed to the extent that you allow it. You must remember that your consciousness does not automatically change or perhaps even brighten up just because you have left matter behind. You think "over there" the same as you do here. In your new phase of life, you believe nothing else but what you have learned and cultivated here. You take that with you.

Recognize from this truth how important it is to begin to look at things a little more closely during one's lifetime - even if this involves work - in order not to run into the traps set by so many people on the other side. When you ask: "And where are you, God?" I tell you: "I was and am always there. But when you have not included Me in your life during your lifetime, then it will be difficult for you to recognize Me and My truth even when you have discarded your material body. I will nevertheless be at your side at the same moment when you call Me with an honest heart. Will you recognize Me?"

From the viewpoint of what has been said, the word "Do not gather treasures on earth ..." takes on an easily understandable meaning. It points to the need to collect treasures for the hereafter. Check yourself. And then look into the world to what extent this instruction has been disregarded. Will it all work itself out? Will everything be right, as if nothing had happened? Whoever assumes this, does not know My laws or did not understand them. One of the primary aims of the opposing forces was and is to present a spiritual activity as fantasy or lie. But My laws cannot be annulled. They apply absolutely and for eternal times; still they contain for all who think about it, My help, which is founded in My love and mercy.

But I will not override them because they only serve to get My human and soul-children to repent. The time is near when this will happen. Therefore I tell you:

The time will come, and it is not far away, when people will cry out for help. Those who seek externally will not find this help. Many will eventually remember that there is a God. The means they think of to get in touch with Me is prayer. But as they do not live with Me, they call for Me in their trouble and fear only with words and not really with the heart.

How can guidance take place where there is no readiness to believe in Me, to love Me and to express this through daily life? They all will be disappointed because they do not understand My handouts and do not recognize My help. It will not come to them in the form they hope or expect: namely that I simply take away the man-made, self-made plagues.

The churches will become fuller again and the lamenting and crying will increase, but the only solution to all problems will not be offered because it is not practiced there: The unconditional surrender to Me and My love, the turning to the almighty Spirit who dwells in man and is not to be found in any church or temple.

But no matter what happens: Whoever comes to Me, not out of fear or to be spared from the events, I will not fail to give him My protecting hand, even if My help and support will sometimes look different than a child would imagine.

Amen.
