

When the soul goes into training

8 September 2020

The address of God to man or through man takes place, like everything in creation, according to irrevocable spiritual laws. The different emphases and perspectives in the revelations result from the divine basic aspects of order, will, wisdom, seriousness, patience, love and mercy, according to the spiritual mentality of the one who receives the word of revelation. In and above all, however, love acts as the bearer of all revelations, without which a true word of God is not possible.

Divine Revelation

My sons and daughters, the basic principle on which My creation is built is love, because I Myself am the all-encompassing Love! I emphasize this again and again, because it is not easy for so many to recognize in My words of revelation also always the love that they imagine to have under Divine Fatherly, motherly or also brotherly love. This especially [the case] then when it is necessary to speak to you with the required earnestness.

It is not everyone's cup of tea to be reminded from time to time of the dangers that lurk in large numbers and often well hidden on your path of incarnation, waiting to make your life difficult. But just then and therefore there is an increased need to sensitize you by enlightenment and hints, because there is still the intention to harm you in the short or also in the long run - thus also over several incarnations. The efforts, which show their bad fruits, reach their temporary peak in your time.

My love for you is valid from the first day of your existence for all time, without restriction and without interruption, no matter what you do, where you are at present, and whether you like Me or not. My longing, My will and My means will bring you back to Me, whereby it does not matter whether your journey home will be short or long. You determine it's duration yourself. But the goal is irrevocably certain: your eternal, true home is with Me. It is the "state" of unimaginable, boundless bliss; it is your inheritance, which waits for you, and which you take up when you have found your way home again.

Everything that you encounter since you have left the heavens and are travelling as a soul outside your homeland serves only to make you think and to help you to knowledge and a conscious decision. Thus the conditions are created, either in other, more fine-material spheres or on earth to attain the necessary maturation of soul. Since your life is endless, an earth-life is no more than a blink of an eye in eternity, even if it seems different to you; this not least because you have been taught differently, and you may have adopted this faith unchecked.

The incomparably longer time, you spend in the worlds beyond in a non-material state. On the basis of considerations and decisions, which I have already mentioned several times, a soul incarnates. This means that it seeks for a human body to serve as a "vehicle" for a certain period of time so that it can have experiences on earth. Incarnations are usually prepared together with your guardian angel, who will guide you in the time of your life on earth according to your own positive intentions.

So the soul leaves it's otherworldly home because it wants to learn something that is more easily possible on earth. In a way, it goes to training. But there are also many other - mostly selfish - reasons, which have been repeatedly illuminated. They almost never aim at soul-development, but rather to experience and act out wishes, passions and drives. The soul or the person in whom it lives will also find these options. They also serve it - even if the person does not know this, let alone want to - always for training, which then however often takes place under difficult conditions.

Since no soul incarnates "as fresh as dew on a rose", this means that all of them bring with them more or less large, in a few cases even voluntarily accepted burdens (1). These consist, however, not only of mistakes or weaknesses which now have to be overcome, but - what is hardly known or often not considered - of views, beliefs and world-views. They are part of the opinions and beliefs acquired in past lives and are still slumbering unrecognized by all in the depths of the human soul. Sooner or later they too must be overcome in the framework of "training", unless they do not correspond to My commandment of love: "love - and nothing else".

Whoever is surprised by this, or who finds it difficult to believe this, may remember that a soul takes over into the hereafter all that it carries in itself at the time of it's physical death. "As the tree falls, so it remains lying", is a fact known among those who know. The potential for change are not optimal for a soul in the ethereal worlds where it lives among it's peers. In order to be able to develop quicker, it therefore usually chooses to incarnate. It brings into it's new life with it what obviously needs to be discarded or changed in it's behavior, as well as it's basic attitudes and parts of it's character from previous lives. This is later expressed in their actions, interests, wishes, intentions and goals.

So much for a short summary of the developmental steps of a soul, about which I have often enlightened you. The said shall serve as basis for the following considerations, where your heart-logic is demanded.

*

One of the most successful moves from the perspective of the dark ones was, besides the incorrect representation of the law of sowing and reaping, the firm establishment of the false idea of hell and the devil. The Fall or Angel's Fall is the linchpin for understanding the increasingly dramatic events on your earth.

I keep coming back to this point because it is My concern that you should mature into independently thinking sons and daughters. That is why I am building My present word of revelation on the lack of knowledge about the consequences of the falling away of a part of the angels, which is mentioned in your Scripture in only in a few places. It has been the event, an event of immense dimensions, which first led to the formation of extraterrestrial, ethereal realms and finally - after periods of time that cannot be described - to the formation of matter. Your dwelling-place - earth - would not exist without the Fall, and thus of course not the life that has developed in the earthly in the most different forms, including human life. You yourselves, too, as humans, would not be where you are, because you would never have left the heavens.

This is one aspect; the other is the false doctrine of an area created outside of My creation, which is given the name "hell" and represents the place of eternal exile for the fallen and all their followers and slaves. While the possibility of any kind of influence by darkness leading to sinful human behavior is not denied by most of your scribes and theologians, the constant, immediate presence of the opposing forces is not known.

Or it is denied together with the fact that these forces need people and use them to be able to proceed successfully on your earth. They can only ever achieve something indirectly. Which means: They act through humans, whom they steer, in order to convert them to the ideas and "objections" directed against My law.

Because the willingness to question is missing, the decline, which has meanwhile affected all areas, is attributed - if at all - only to the ruthlessness and egoism of people who are intent on their own advantage. This applies to the destruction of your living space just as much as to the twisting of My love-teaching; it applies to everything that is directed against My commandment of love.

The true "backstage-men and women", the real string-pullers, who guide their earthly vassals from the invisible, cannot be recognized as causers. That is their strength - up until now.

Therefore people do not understand that the opposing forces, which have never given up their fight against Me, quite consciously aim at insecurity, fear, chaos and destruction to an ever increasing degree. In doing so, they not only accept illness, suffering, need and death of men, but it has always been one of their goals to harm my human children physically and mentally in this way and to bind them to themselves in order to then live from their negative energy; even then, when the souls, after their transition into the hereafter, go into the astral regions in which the satanic powers have the say.

From many of My revelations you know that the negative beings possess powers that human will and action cannot cope with (2). That you nevertheless do not feel threatened or seduced is due to the sophistication in the form of "salami tactics" with which your opponent proceeds. But with all the beauty you encounter on earth, do not forget that you have entered the domain of darkness with your incarnation.

And not only that: you are, figuratively speaking, in the middle of a "lion's den," and your seducer does everything possible not to let you feel this. It is often even enough for him if he succeeds in preventing you from progress in the sense of My commandment of love. Then he has already reached his goal, in contrast to you, who after all had planned to take a small or large step of development in your incarnation.

An illustration may serve you as a metaphor:

You have booked an hour with a consultant, trainer or teacher because you want to learn or experience something. The person sitting opposite you is so fascinating, and the conversations you have right after the greeting are so interesting that time flies and you realize too late that you can't get to the real reason for your visit. But then the hour is already over.

Because people walk mostly blindly through their lives - also those who believe in Me are not immune from this "illness" - they have become a toy which can be pushed back and forth at will - deceived, seduced and manipulated by darkness. Ignorance about satanic intentions and actions plays into their hands.

*

The consequence of an effort to live love in everyday life does not only lead to the release of soul-burdens, but also to an inner freedom and a change of character: Also the consciousness changes - it "widens", and the person begins to question many things and to look and listen more intently. This is also something that darkness wants to prevent. But this is an important part of the development process of your soul, which wants to reach "maturity".

Help upon help I have given you as Jesus of Nazareth, in the following centuries through prophets and increasingly in the last decades through My faithful ones. In doing so, you will have noticed that although I go into detail when it is a matter of understanding the necessary steps to self-knowledge and of tackling the subsequent solution, I have never intervened in your decision through a direct answer. That has its reason on the one hand in that I respect your free will, and on the other hand it belongs to your learning tasks that you should work out the correct answers yourselves, in order to be able to go independently and responsibly through your life.

That is why many of My commandments or explanations are to be regarded as a kind of "heading," the underlying content of which is revealed to you through the application of the standards, which contain My law of love. For example, I commanded you: "Love your enemies," but I did not tell you concretely who belongs to your enemies or even point the finger at them. I betray nobody!

It is therefore up to you to recognize by means of My many indications - without condemning - who is well-disposed towards you and who is not; who therefore wants to help you or who wants to harm you. This is not always easy, for the deceptions are often excellently staged, and the masks that the human seducers wear fit - still - perfectly.

From My words you can see that sooner or later you always have to decide for or against something. When you then look back and consider the path you have taken to find your way back home, you will find that you always had to decide. If you avoided this, there would have been no homecoming. Were there wrong decisions? No, because at some point you learned from it and then went a different way, a way which you would not have taken immediately without your "wrong" considerations. However, there were decisions that delayed your way home and brought you worries and suffering. They were the consequences of your own will, which you, however, often in ignorance of the connections, blamed Me for. Why should I therefore be angry or even wrathful for a pain which you inflicted not upon Me but upon yourself?

Try to look at today's world-situation from a higher perspective, from the perspective of the angel you were and will be again. Do you think you could not recognize and decide what is right and wrong? You do not need omniscience for that. Would you shrug your shoulders and act indifferently, which means: I have not yet decided whether what I see is good or bad in the sense of love?

Here, heart-logic can be a valuable helper. It ensures that the view becomes continuously clearer.

The sooner you manage to see through the game on your earth and form an opinion, the greater the chance of not being drawn into the chaos, the many inconsistencies and lies. At the same time, however, it means often having to accept inconveniences and disadvantages, or having to give up privileges that can be claimed by those who do not deal with the inconsistencies they encounter.

But that, My beloved sons and daughters, has never been any different. Just think of the persecutions that have been taking place everywhere for 2,000 years of those who have chosen to follow in My footsteps. It was indeed people who humiliated and fought against them, but the string-pullers behind it are the opposing forces, who have succeeded in getting people with a corresponding soul-condition [as theirs] to devote their power and abilities to the service of the opposing side.

And even if you find it hard to see it that way: still also the deceived are your brothers and sisters, together with whom you will one day again be with Me. But these do not yet know that they are subject to the law of sowing and reaping, in which they have become caught up. They do not know it or they believe in it just as little as they believe in Me and thus in an entity that has given them life, preserves them and waits for them. But also for them, as you know it from the parable of the prodigal son, the day of knowledge, repentance and conversion will come.

But until this happens, they are - without suspecting it - merely executive servants and maidservants of a dark power that is no longer interested in them once they have initiated the desired changes and contributed to the decline.

*

You have entered the training-planet Earth with your incarnation. Therefore, I take the opportunity to give you a small task and remind you of a "technique" that can help you to see through the techniques of the other side.

This is certainly not always easy, because the machinery of control, for which you coined the word "propaganda", has been increasingly perfected over many decades. There is hardly a secular leader who has not used or is not using this powerful tool for forming opinions. Quite deliberately, wrong and right news and information are jumbled together. Then it is easy to present everything as a conspiracy because of a lack of transparency, and thus to put those who suspect or have recognized the truth among many untruths into the corner of the phantoms. And the darkness feels, not for the first and not for the last time, the winner.

Those who have not acquired or retained a deeper sight and hearing and do not work with the logic of the heart, can very quickly become victims of these campaigns of obfuscation and confusion.

"But let your discourse be: Yes, yes, no, no. What is more, is evil..." (3).

If you believe My words that there is a very real, destructive force, that this force has undreamt-of means and ways at its disposal, that it is not "somewhere in hell," but rather in the middle of your everyday life and thus very present among people, and that it has the goal to harm you and have in mind - if possible, your destruction, then ask yourselves - you are under My protection in this(!) - what the strategy might look like to achieve this goal.

How would you approach such a task? The time to seduce or manipulate individuals or even groups has also brought success, but now it is time for a "big clean-up". If you want to achieve something on a large scale, you have to act globally. What requirements must be met? Would it help you to manipulate people who have no influence, no power and no money? Who cannot bring the ideas implanted in them to the people? Does it make sense to include in the plan the nurse who lovingly cares for her patients? Or the mother who sacrificially raises her children under difficult circumstances? Or the forestry worker whose love for nature and its preservation is a matter of course? Or the field worker who can only feed his family with great difficulty?

I will take a short break to give you the opportunity to reflect on My questions. Of course you are free not to do so. This would not change anything about My love for you. But perhaps you will use this moment to practice what I am teaching you as the logic of the heart.

- - - A short time of silence - - -

If you have come to the answer that it would not work this way, but that a promising course of action must have quite different criteria, then you come very close to the truth. I will not tell you too much: But if it is not the "little man", then it must be people who, because of their position and influence, can put into practice what is given to them - often without them being aware of it.

Or do you assign such considerations to the land of fantasy? Then I remind you of those who at all times have instigated wars and were the outward authors of misery, suffering and millionfold death. What drove them to it was the very same force that caused the fall and have never given up their fight. At all times it has sent it's "representatives" to the playing field of earth; and, even if they were not always it's immediate "messengers," it always found men and women with a corresponding mental and character-disposition which it could use for it's purposes.

What do you believe, what has been offered to their souls, so that man - soul and man form a unit! - behaves according to their wishes? Wealth? Beauty? Pleasures of any kind? It is the power that has been promised to them and given for a few years or decades. And it is not easy to resist this temptation, especially when you have otherwise achieved much or already everything that is possible on earth.

For many people, power has something fascinatingly seductive about it. It is exercised on all levels, on the small as well as on the large, and can be found even in the smallest cell, marriage, partnership and family. It becomes quite dangerous for the majority of humanity when it is practiced on a large scale, which always ends in abuse, no matter how unselfishly it's use is portrayed.

To exercise power over others never corresponds to My law of unselfish love, because this leaves absolute freedom to everyone. To work with power to achieve one's own goals therefore always represents the opposite of what I taught as Jesus. It is the counterpart of serving humility and always leaves damage in the souls of those in power as well as in the oppressed and the manipulated.

Whoever takes My name in his mouth should also remember what I said about the meek, the merciful, and the peacemakers, among others ... (4).

*

My next question to you and then again a little pause: If the dark side positions it's players - and heaven, which oversees, knows about this intention and execution - how will it behave, how will I behave?

- - - - -

Do you trust Me to simply look away and remain inactive when and because I know what is prepared and intended? If not, then the conclusion can only be that Heaven too has sent it's messengers, and not only in the past, but also in the last centuries! Now, in your difficult time, innumerable of My sons and daughters are incarnated to strengthen the light side. They come both from the pure heavens and from the innumerable extra-heavenly realms, in which My Divine light already shines. If you like, then feel within yourself whether you do not also belong to those who have taken up the challenge of defying darkness, deceit and lies.

But also many souls from the astral realms have decided to use the opportunities of this incarnation for their further development. They have observed, tested and then decided. Through their openness and their efforts, they are now expanding the large group of those who form the antipole to darkness. All who are incarnated with these intentions know that the point is to defeat the opposition through love and not through cunning, deceit or violence. They too still have their faults and weaknesses, but they have perceived the call of love within themselves. And that is why they have decided to step over to My side.

Because it will not be easy for you and your descendants in the time ahead, Inner Work is so important. Remember again and again that you are never alone in all your efforts. Come to Me, flee into My arms when you feel that you are tempted to lose your inner peace. And never forget that, in spite of all apparent distress, it is after all an unequal struggle in the end, because only love can win the victory; for there is no greater power and no stronger force. Even if it will still take eons until then.

What will happen to the defeated who finally realize that they did wrong? They will be rebuilt by My love and through the love of their brothers and sisters, the wounds of their souls will be healed, and then they, too, will return into the bosom of the great family of God.

My beloved sons and daughters, so many of you will struggle with My revelation; this not least because one would have to revise one's initially mentioned views and beliefs if one would want to acknowledge the truth in My words. Everyone is free to follow their own ideas. But you can uphold your views only if you exclude the case and its consequences, as I have described to you, from your considerations.

But when you recognize the correctness in what is said, connections open up to you that were previously hidden to you. Then much will be explained, and then you will also look at many a thing with different eyes in the future. Above all, however, your alertness will then be sharpened, because you will learn to see behind the masks. But what you recognize is not to make you worry or anxious, but is to let a feeling of security arise in you, because you now know how you can resist being used as an ignorant and fearful "toy ball".

Each one of you carries My power in you. Do not therefore stare helplessly like "the rabbit at the snake". You are strong and powerful children of My love, who - although you may not yet be aware of it - carry within yourselves the desire to express the good more strongly in the coming time and thereby be a light of consolation to many.

Amen.

(1) the revelation "Harmony is the basis of all life" of 22. 8. 2020 goes into this in detail.

(2) see also the revelation of 13. 7. 2020 "How you find protection and security".

(3) Matth. 5,37

(4) Matth. 5,1-12